PORTLAND INSTITUTION ASKS FOR ASSISTANCE

Portland Christian Woman's Home Agent Visit La Grande

Miss Laura Jones of Portland is in the city in the interest of the Young Women's Christian home, which is being conducted by the Volunteers of America for working girls. The organization has purchased the home and is doing a noble work for young women of limited means. It is enabled to give them room and board for the modest sum of $3 a week and provide them with surroundings that will not be detrimental to their physical or moral welfare. Miss Jones has made the trip to La Grande several years and last year succeeded in making one of the largest collections for the home made in Eastern Oregon. She bears a recommendation from the governor of the state and has other proper credentials.

MYERS TO THE MINORS.

Stallings Springs Surprise in Dropping First Baseman.

The surprising news came from Boston recently that "Hap" Myers, the first baseman, had been released to Rochester in the International league by George Stallings. "Hack" Schmidt, the youngster from Rochester, who had a trial by the Braves during the latter part of the season, showed up well at the bat, and Stallings probably decided to give him the call for the position.

It is surprising that no other club in the big leagues has put in a claim for Myers. There are several teams in the National and American leagues that could use him to good advantage.

Myers went to the Braves last spring from the Northwestern league, where he stole 118 bases during the season of 1912. He lived up to his base running reputation in the National league by purloining fifty-two bases in 138 games.

MATTY AND FULTZ.

New York Pitcher Boomed to Head Players' Fraternity.

Christy Mathewson is slated to be the next president of the Baseball Players' fraternity, succeeding David L. Fultz in the election in the fall, according to members of various teams. Practically every player in the land looks up to Matty as the wise man of the game, and he ought to be able to get more results than Fultz in dickering with the league heads and the national commission, particularly when it is considered that Fultz has accomplished nothing.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take.

They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

STUDY YOUR HEALTH.

A Mushroom Can Live in a Cellar, but Don't Be a Mushroom.

In the American Magazine William Johnston says that it is probably your own fault if you are all the time catching colds or having indigestion or headaches. He goes on to say:

"Nature intends every human being to be strong and well. Most disease is either ignorance or carelessness. Babies—even the babies of sickly, ignorant, incompetent parents—are given a pretty good start by nature. If children get sickly it nearly always is the fault of the persons taking care of them. If when they grow up they remain unhealthy it is largely their own fault.

"But, you protest, 'I can't help it if I inherit a weak stomach.' Oh, yes, you can.

"Did you ever systematically study your stomach? If you were going to be a lawyer you would study law. If you were going to be a stenographer you would study shorthand. If you are going to be healthy study health.

"Most people know more about the care of their clothes than they do about the care of their health. Study your diet. Find out what the effects of the various foods are. Ask yourself if you are getting enough exercise. Keep tabs until you find what it is that disagrees with you. Leave strictly alone the food—and the drinks—that your stomach scolds you about.

"Make up your mind to be healthy. Go to the three best doctors, the three that nature has provided free for everybody—fresh air, fresh water and sunlight. Get as much of all three whenever you can.

"A mushroom can live in a cellar, but don't be a mushroom.

"If you eat right, drink lots of water, sleep in fresh air and get out in the sunshine you'll soon forget to be sick.

"And perfect health is a long stride toward perfect happiness."

His Busy Day.

"You say you called this morning on my husband at his office? He's always so busy. Did you have any trouble in seeing him?"

"Yes, at first. He was sitting behind his desk, and I couldn't see him until he moved his feet."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
