Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

The front-lacing principle (originated by The H. W. Gossard Co.) has accomplished much for the comfort and convenience of woman's dress. Of even greater importance than front lacing, however, has been the genius displayed in the actual designing and making of Gossard Corsets.

So outstanding and thorough has been this work that, great as the front lacing principle is, the Gossard method of design and manufacture transcends it, and the two combined occupy a position so commanding that they are now regarded as an international vogue. Regardless of the cost—every Gossard Corset conforms to but one standard in style, workmanship and wearing service. A complete line of the new fall models and sizes always on hand. Prices $3.50 to $8.50.

Remarkable Cure of Croup.

"Last winter when my little boy had croup I got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I honestly believe it saved his life," writes Mrs. J. B. Cook, Indiana, Pa.: "It cut the phlegm and relieved his coughing pells. I am most grateful for what this remedy has done for him." For sale by all dealers.

TO THE VIRGINS.

Gather ye rosebuds while ye may,
Old time is still a-flying.
And this same flower that smiles today
Tomorrow will be dying.
The glorious lamp of heaven, the sun,
The higher he's a-getting
The sooner will his race be run
And nearer he's to setting.

That age is best which is the first,
When youth and blood are warmer;
But, being spent, the worse and worst
Times still succeed the former.
Then be not coy, but use your time,
And while ye may, go marry,
For having lost but once your prime
You may forever tarry.

—Robert Herrick.

London's Dullest Job.

The dullest job in London may be come an absorbing occupation in time. There is a clerk at the law courts whose sole duty is to take papers, one by one, from a pile on the left side of his table, bang a stamp down on them and place them in the same order on his right. He has been doing this job for about thirty-five years and recently confessed that it has become such a part of his nature that, if the supply of documents dried up he would have a nervous breakdown. Fortunately, the block of litigation at the courts will prevent such a catastrophe for some time.—London Standard.
