ELGIN LODGE HONORS CLAN

DR. AND MRS. BROWNELL MADE
GUESTS OF HONOR.

Eastern Star Stages Celebrative Wedding Ceremony for Them.

Elgin, Nov. 29.—The date of the last meeting of Blue Mountain Chapter No. 52, O. E. S. was also the date of the pearl anniversary of the wedding of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Brownell, of Elgin, and their associates in the O. E. S. tendered them a surprise in the form of a reception in their Chapter room in Masonic hall.

At the close of their regular meeting the officers were asked to assemble in the anti-room. Being an officer Mrs. Brownell went with the others, the officers all being in white as is their custom for any special event, Mrs. Brownell was speedily arrayed in bridal costume by the addition of veil and orange blossoms, a bouquet of white carnations was placed in her hand.

Escorted by a brother and preceded by a flower girl and ring bearer, with the Worthy Matron acting as matron of honor and the other officers as bridesmaids Mrs. Brownell entered the chapter room at the left as the Doctor, with the Worthy Patron acting as best man, and the brother officers as groomsmen, entered at the right.

To the strains of Mendlesholm's wedding march the company passed to the center of the room, where, under an arch supporting a wedding bell, they were met by Rev. Mr. Hausen, pastor of the Brownell's and Rev. Mr. James, of Wallowa.

After an address by Rev. Mr. Hausen and the renewal of their marriage vows, the Doctor presented his wife with a beautiful pearl ring. Heartily congratulated by their many friends, they responded gracefully.

Mrs. J. F. Bates sang a solo, "I Love You Truly." Musical selections by Mrs. Gentzer and Miss Bergman and a cornet solo by Prof. Bates added much to the pleasure of the guests.

The doctor and his wife were escorted to the center front of the room, and, with a few remarks expressing the esteem in which they are held, and of appreciation of their loyalty to right and truth they were presented with a pearl and gold pen from the officers of the order. In a pleasant speech from the good doctor and his wife the friends were assured of their pleasure in the occasion and of their love and loyal good will for the fraternity.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once."

I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.
