

Oregon Agricultural College Farmers' Week

DECEMBER 8 to 13, 1913
This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon. Farmers' Co-operation will be the leading topic of a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions, and demonstrations in everything that makes for the welfare of the farmer and home-maker.

Winter Short Course

JANUARY 5 to 30, 1914
The College has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of courses will be offered in General Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Dairying, Poultry Farmers' Business Courses by Correspondence Without Tuition. Keeping, Mechanic Arts, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce, Forestry, and Music. Numerous lectures and discussions on FARMERS' CO-OPERATION, at home and abroad, will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition. Accommodations reasonable. Reduced rates on all railroads. For further information address
H. M. TENNANT, Registrar,
CORVALLIS, OREGON.

Croup and Cough Remedy.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Cham-

IRWIN WRIGHT LEAVES BANK

WILL BECOME CONNECTED WITH A NEW BANK.

Poultryman to Go Into Extensive Poultry Business.

Union, Dec. 3.—(Special).—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Tobin on Dec. 1, a son.

Irwin Wright has resigned his position in the First National bank and accepted a position in a bank at Estacada. He and his wife left immediately for their new home.

The International tea given by the Senior class of the high school was a fine success and a large crowd attended and enjoyed the trips through the different countries. A short program was given and was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience.

R. W. England who has been manager of the C. R. of O. has resigned and will return east where he has a better position offered him. The many friends dislike to see this fine family leave, but wish them every success in their new home.

G. H. Rollins of South Union is going into the poultry business on a very large scale and has just completed a fine chicken house. He has some fine layers that are after the O. A. C. record.

Miss Ruth Scibird and Miss Ione Eaton served on the election board.

berlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklin & Co., Phila. St. Louis.

From Bad to Worse.
Hemmanthaw's face wore a worried look.
"I'm in trouble," he said. "I don't seem to be able to get up early in the morning."
"Why don't you get yourself a nice little alarm clock?" the head book-keeper suggested.
"I did, but I didn't hear the thing when it went off."
"Then why don't you get a big one?"
"I did that, too, and it made me lose too much time."
"Made you lose time?"
"Yes. It rang so loudly that it awakened the man in the next room, and he beat me to the washroom."
—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Why Do They Do That?

Miss Prim (who is forty-one)—Yes, I was thirty only last week. Think of it! The caller (aged thirty-seven, with a charming insincerity)—Dear me! I couldn't have guessed you were more than four years my senior. I will be twenty-five next month. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Life's Fiftful Fever.

"Terrible times these. The books aren't fit to read, and the plays aren't fit to see."
"Tough, eh?"
"Yes, and, as usual, my wife hasn't a thing fit to wear."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Doctor Says I Must Not Work

This was told the owner of this 80 acre farm SO HIS LOSS WILL BE Someones Gain

This place is 2 1/2 miles northwest from Elgin on the main road. There is now twenty-five (25) acres in cultivation; about ten (10) more can be put in cultivation, leaving forty-five (45) good pasture. The land all slopes to the east, with the southwest corner of the eighty (80) going up to steep, high hill. There is some good timber on the place. Fourteen (14) acres of good young apple orchard from two (2) to five (5) years old, of which one-third are Rome Beauties, one-third Grimes Golden, balance several varieties; good winter stock. Two (2) acres old orchard, full bearing apples. There are also other fruit trees and strawberries, raspberries, blackberries; about 1 1/2 acres alfalfa, two (2) years old. There is a large log barn, three (3) good hen houses, two (2) good wells. There is a spring high above the house that could be made to furnish water for house.

The house has ten (10) rooms. It is not entirely finished, but very comfortable and homelike. The surroundings are certainly beautiful. The farm is now so anyone can make money on it.

LISTEN NOW,
The price is now cut down to $3,000. There is a mortgage of $1,500 now on the place to run to Oct. 15, 1917, at 7 per cent interest. We will consider $500 to $1,000 cash. Contract for the balance. Or can use some income property in La Grande to the amount of $1,500.
