"LAST DAYS OF POMPEII" FILMS TO BE SEEN AT ARCADE DEC. 11

"The Last Days of Pompeii" is one of the most stupendous productions in the moving picture world. It depicts the tragic destruction of one of the most luxurious cities of old Rome, and is pronounced by the national board of censorship the most beautiful spectacle that has ever been produced. The Canadian board of censors concurred in this opinion. The board of education of the city of New York recommended the photo play to all the teachers employed in the city schools, as being of exceptional value in the study of history. This picture is superior to the "Fall of Troy" which a few years ago created such a sensation in all of the larger cities and made more money for its author than any other single film produced. George Kleine, the author succeeded in putting over two films on Broadway which is the first time that this has been done, in one single year.

O. R. Henkel, the western representative for Mr. Kleine will be in the city on the 11th to personally supervise the production of this magnificent play at the Arcade on the 11th.

"Among the managers are M. D. Wilson, R. W. Horn, E. C. Andrews, William Tully, J. H. Horwood, Robert Evans, Benn Bass, O. H. Butler, Al Wiswell, C. A. Shaw, William Graham, Matt Sheeley, Frank L. Bixby, Jules Waters, Harry Rowe, Sim Allen, C. G. Windsor, H. Naugle, Jules Sowalsky and Niles Gibbons.

"The companies which are now playing 'Quo Vadis' are in charge of the following: Charles Wuerz, John Black, Foster Moore, George Henshall, Ben Simpson, Bert Glishauf, Clarence Burdick, Sam Mott, George Costen, Joseph Frankel, Branch O'Brien, Jack Brehany, Archie McGovern, Harry

Women of Woodcraft Meet.

The La Grande Circle, No. 47 of Women of Woodcraft, met at the K. of P. hall last evening for their annual election of officers. Those elected to positions for the coming year were: Past guardian, Lena Head; guardian, Loretta Starba; advisor, Louise Hilary; clerk, Lilly Allstot; banker, Stella Gilbanks; magician, Maggie Coleman; attendant, Elizabeth Hough; inner sentinel, Clara Bradley; outer sentinel, Bella Thornberg; captain of guard, Elma Liliz; managers, Edward Adcock, H. White, Jr. Last evening's session was held before a very large number of the lodge members and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. Plans were formed for the winter's campaign. On December 23 the circle will entertain the Woodmen of the World and their friends with a mixed program of music, coffee and sandwiches. After all these numbers have been enjoyed a genuine old-fashioned candy pulling bee will be given.

Union County Fair.

Tonight will be the last rehearsal of the "County Fair"—the Neighborhood club's big show. This is without doubt the best and most interesting entertainment by home talent ever given in La Grande and very few professional shows have equaled it. It will be a surprise to everyone to see how some of the ladies of the Neighborhood club take the comical characters in the play, and there is many a good laugh in store for the audience. There is a laugh in every turn and the turns are numerous.

As the scene opens the loud-mouthed fakers, lemonade man, side-show barker and the balloon man almost deafen you with their mighty yells. Then follows a quick succession of farmers, old maids, school boys, jockeys, bride grocer, gold-brick men—a conglomeration of all the characters one can possibly imagine at a county fair, each with an appropriate dialogue and conversation. All this is so humorous and full of life and spirit it keeps the audience in convulsions. The best talent of the city will participate and there can be no doubt of the fair being a rousing success, as our talent we believe is rather superior to that of the average town.

One of the big features is the beautiful choruses and dances introduced at intervals.

COFFEE.

If you had the time and sufficient knowledge of green coffee and the proper roasting facilities, you might roast your own coffee every morning before breakfast. Still we should say: if you don't like Schilling's Best better we return your money.

If you drink coffee 365 days in the year you can't afford not to try Schilling's Best.

BAKER LIKES SHOW.

Manager Gardiner Advised That Tonight's Show Is a Banner One.

Baker was much pleased with the presentation of "A Bachelor's Honeymoon," which showed there a day or two ago. Only the highest praises came from those who witnessed the performance and the manager of the Baker theater which housed the entertainment, personally guaranteed to Mr. Gardiner of the Arcade that he was receiving a first class show which sparkled with wit and merriment.

Bachelor's Honeymoon.

Lovers of high-class amusement will be afforded a rare treat in the form of a high-class comedy, "A Bachelor's Honeymoon," which will appear at the Arcade tonight. The play is replete with witty lines and sayings, and abundant with side-splitting situations. The cast is composed of recognized performers, fully capable of portraying their respective roles. The specialties and musical numbers aer of a pure, clean nature that are sure to gain the hearty approval of all who witness it. All in all the play is one that will amuse, minus anything that might tend to offend the most fastidious.

MILLS OF JUSTICE GRIND.

Too Much "Booze" and Money Are Cause of Fines and Jail.

The mills of justice were busy this morning grinding out evidence and fines in Justice Williams' court and in the municipal court. C. J. Murphy could not resist the temptation for strong drink and the law picked him up and fined him $5.00 this morning. Scotty Brown, an old-time offender, is now serving a $10.00 fine in the service of the city for the same offense.

Harry Mowbray, who was a few days ago arrested on a charge of extracting money from a fellow roommate at the Blue Mountain hotel, was this morning arraigned in the justice court and bound over to the grand jury under a $250 bond.

Croup and Cough Remedy.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklin & Co., Phila. St. Louis.

Perry News Items.

Perry, Dec. 10.—(Special).—L. B.

Stoddard left Perry Sunday night for Portland where he will attend the meeting of the Northwestern Association of Box Manufacturers, Monday and Tuesday.

The choir is now practicing a number of selections which will be rendered at the Lutheran services Wednesday night. Also a number of selections will be given at the Christmas entertainment which Professor Snyder is planning for his school.

Marriage License Issued.

Yesterday afternoon a marriage license was issued by County Clerk Ed Wright to Wilbur Bault and Edna L. Harryman of Elgin.

If any building erected in La Grande this year by an out-of-town contractor, got the hump on it that the Bohnenkamp building has, don't patronize home folks.
