KNOWLES' SON INJURES KNEE

FRISKY HORSE SHIES AT SAND-PILE, THROWING RIDER.

Right Knee Smashed, in Fall—Father Injured Same Knee.

Everett Knowles, son of Circuit Judge Knowles, received a somewhat painful, yet not serious wound on Monday of this week, when a horse which he was riding fell on him and crushed his knee. The horse had not been out of the barn for several days and was feeling extra frisky. While passing the new Methodist church the horse shied at a pile of sand and began to run. At the foot of the Fourth street hill the horse, meeting an automobile, turned quickly and fell, throwing his rider but catching the boy's knee in the fall with sufficient force to crush that member. Everett remounted and rode home not noticing the pain for a little time. When the doctor was called it was found that the injured part needed immediate attention and Everett will not be able to use it for three weeks. A peculiar incident is the fact that the knee is the right knee and is injured in the same place as was Judge Knowles' who suffered a serious cut with a hatchet.

"September Morn" Will Show Here

The subject of "September Morn," is to visit La Grande. The pretty woman whose likeness is in every home in the United States is to appear at the Arcade on Thursday, Friday and Saturday in a vaudeville stunt. She is the real live flesh and blood girl whose likeness adorns every shop window, and every bachelor's den. It is the same little girl who waded out into the waters of a Paris lake and posed for the artist who has since made a fortune out of this attractive picture. On Thursday she appears in a sketch entitled "The Alderman and the Chorus Girl," on Friday in "The Workingman and the Lady," and on Saturday in "The Arizona Bandit." She has been creating a furore in all of the cities visited by her and many attractive offers of marriage have been made her. Mr. Gardiner says this is going to be one of the biggest bills of the season for his theater, with no change in price of admission all week.

GOOD NEWS.

Many La Grande Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in La Grande are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. W. F. Graybill, 1408 Washington avenue, La Grande, Ore. says: "I was bothered by a dull pain across the small of my back. I had dizzy spells and blurring before my eyes. I also suffered from weak kidneys. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they benefitted me. Another of my family has also used Doan's Kidney Pills and recommends them. I have not had a sign of kidney trouble since I took Doan's Kidney Pills several years ago. I gave them my endorsement after I was benefitted, and I willingly confirm it now."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Graybill had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

PROMINENT CITIZENS CAUGHT.

A gang of highly respectable men caught last Saturday, 2:30 A. M., which at this time no names are mentioned. But if such should occur again no mercy given. These men are men with good families and are known by our city police and were caught filling up sacks and wheeling them away. Some 500 sacks that night were handled, yes, it's the night men at the La Grande Milling Co.'s plan, who each and every night pack and wheel away that number; it consists of "Sea Foam," "Royal Patent," "Jersey Cream," "Blue Stem," and "Cash Special." INMATES OF CITY BASTILE
PREFER RESTRICTED DIET.

Enforced Temperance Imposed Upon
Men Who Refuse to Work.

F. Kabunda was this morning arraigned in the municipal court for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. This being his third offense, the fine was put up a few notches beyond the last figures and stopped at the $40 mark. Kabunda, however, seems to have broken into the city bastille with a will for he has refused to aid the city in keeping the street in good order, preferring to sit it out in the jail on the customary diet of bread and water administered in near starvation quantities. He is strong and healthy and can give no valid excuse for refusing to work. The jail has been renovated by the chief and his lieutenants recently and things are a bit comfortable just now. But if he can stand the sparse diet he will have done more than some of his predecessors have done. Misery loves company and hence it is that his fellow roomer in the Hotel de La Grande, F. J. Whalen has chosen to subsist on the same diet of Beaver Creek and Blue Stem. He is one of the new men on the disorderly list and has but $5.00 to sit out.

Congregational Meeting.

The Congregation of the First Presbyterian church, is reminded of the Congregational Meeting to be held at the church, on Thursday evening of this week at 7:30 o'clock. Business of importance is to be transacted and everyone is earnestly urged to be present.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy—The Mother's Favorite.

"I give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my children when they have colds or coughs," writes Mrs. Verne Shaffer, Vandergrift, Pa. It always helps them and is far superior to any cough medicine I have used. I advise anyone in need of such medicine to give it a trial." For sale by all dealers.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS

George W. King, whose mother lives in South La Grande, will arrive tonight from Portland to visit with his mother during the holidays. He is a resident of Iowa and is coming through the city on his return from San Pedro, California where he had gone with his mother-in-law. He lived here for a number of years and is well-known.

Mrs. Ella Marrs of Boise, passed through the city this morning, en route to Enterprise, where she will see her brother, whom she has not seen in 25 years. Mrs. Marrs was a former resident of this city. She came with her father across the plains in the year '78. Her father, Wm. Brower is well known in this vicinity. She was accompanied by her children, Stella and Clarence.

We take the risk of it's being abused: we ask the grocer to return a dissatisfied customer's money if she doesn't like Shilling's Best; let her keep the goods; and sell her again.

So long as he thinks she is honest, he is to hand over the money. We trust him to do for us as he'd do for himself if he were we and himself too.
