BASKETBALL SEASON NEAR

JOSEPH COMING TO LA GRANDE NEW YEAR'S NIGHT.

Cadets Defeated by Sophomore Team at Gymnasium Last Night.

Basketball is about to blossom. Student Manager Hunter has closed negotiations with the Joseph high school five for the opening game of the season in La Grande. The contest will take place at the high school gymnasium on New Year's night, January 1. Joseph comes out from Wallowa county for the first time, but does so because the school there is convinced it has a winning aggregation this year. Manager Hunter has some good games scheduled for the winter, but thinks that the high praise for the Joseph team coming from that end of the county, justifies him in announcing that the season will probably not contain a more interesting game than this one. It will give the first public glimpse at what the high school here has this year, and will also let a La Grande will be a novelty—none have ever audience see a Joseph team, which played here before.

SOPHS BEAT CADETS.

Scholastic Players Overtake Club's Lead Late in the Game.

The hard-working Sophomores defeated the Cadets, a well-known club of young boys of this city, in an exciting game last night at the high school gymnasium. The Sophs had the weight and height advantage. The team work of the Cadets was very good and both teams showed mid-season class at various times. The Cadets with brilliant playing in spots ran up a total of 21 points against the heavier Sophs, who scored 24 points. The club boys held the lead until four minutes were left to play when the Sophomores came to the front in good style and passed the nifty clubbers. Bean and Stoddard starred for the Sophs and Rosenbaum and Evans were especially good for the Cadets. Rosenbaum was exceptionally good at shooting the baskets and Evans showed ability to get the ball. The line-up for the teams was:

Cadets	Position	Sophomores
Rosenbaum	c	Lambert
Evans	f	Stafford
McDonald	f	Stoddard
Nutter	g	Holmes
Reynolds	g	Bean
