IF you have never used Electric Lights, you cannot fully appreciate their superiority; if you have always used them, you are apt to accept them as a matter of course; but if you have used them and then, for some reason, are forced to do without them--THEN you will realize how much their brilliance and convenience meant to you.

You needn't do without them in La Grande, however, for our service reaches everywhere, and our rates place Electric Light within the means of all.

J. C. Graves has taken a homestead on the divide and expects to move out in the spring.

Croup and Cough Remedy.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds."

CIDER TIME.

Cider barrels high the woodshed,
A frothin' at the bung;
Boys with straws absorb'n'
Liquid--
I wish that I was young,
Layin' that upon a barrel
Suckin' juice today,
And you, old chum, was pumpin'
with me--

Cool and sweet as clover honey--
Luscious, limpid juice--
Pints or quarts as free as water--
Can't you feel it ooze
And kind o' trickle down your gullet
Same as long ago?
Ain't it fun to think about it
Just as if 'twas so?
--Jabe Smith in Rural Farmer.
