J. S. GALLOWAY PASSES AWAY

Union, Dec. 30.—(Special.)—The many friends of J. S. Galloway were shocked to hear of his death which occurred on Wednesday night at midnight. Mr. Galloway had been a patient sufferer from cancer of the throat and tongue for some time so that his death was not unexpected. He was one of the early settlers of Union, having lived here for several years. He leaves a wife and family besides numerous friends and relatives to mourn his loss. Mr. Galloway was a good friend and neighbor and the family have the sympathy of the community in their deep trouble.

The Christmas entertainments were rather limited in Union owing to the quarantine for scarlet fever. The Presbyterian school sent each one of the pupils a treat on Christmas morning and it is needless to say that they were very much enjoyed by the little people.

The C. R. of O. had an accident Saturday evening which might have proved a bad one but fortunately resulted in no fatalities to anyone except to two head of cattle. The train was on its way to the Junction to meet the pony when it ran into a bunch of cattle which was being driven across the track and killed two of them and partially throwing the engine off the track. The trainmen are to be congratulated that no one was hurt in the mixup.

Professors Giddings and Bradshaw are visiting with friends in Union, during the holiday season. Both of the gentlemen taught in Union last year and are welcome visitors in our little burg.

The Poultry association is planning a bigger and better poultry show than Union has ever had before. The association held a meeting Saturday evening to consider ways and means.

The basketball boys are practicing every evening under the coaching of Professor Erland. There will be a game next week and everyone is counting on a hotly contested game.

The Old Folks dance on Christmas night was well attended, in fact too much so as the crowd was so dense as to bother the dancers; a lot of the older people were among the dancers. We did not know that Editor Seibold of the Republican considered himself old until we saw him among the dancers and then we had to believe reluctant as we are to acknowledge

When your horse resolves to demand our brand of food in preference to all others we think he ought to have it. If dumb animals could speak we think the chorus in favor of our grain and feed would be a mighty loud one, but as they can't, we will have to appeal to the owner. You can't beat our brand of feed anywhere. Phone us your wood orders.
