PARENTS AND STUDENTS HAVE ENJOYABLE TIME.

News Mention and Personals From Smith Mountain Section.

Minam, Or., Jan. 4.—(Special).—The Christmas tree at the lovely school house on Smith's Mountain, was a success, and it was a beautiful sight. It was loaded with presents, as well as a host of presents stacked around the tree. To behold a tree so well decorated speaks in itself for the prosperity of the Smith Mountain residents in the past year. The program was well rendered by pupils of the school, under the direction of Mrs. E. May Barton. There were also remarks and speeches by Messrs. David Scott, Gus C. Mahrone and Mr. Barton, after which the presents were distributed, and a bounteous supply of candy and nuts, popcorn and apples were enjoyed by young and young alike. All thoroughly enjoyed a sociable and pleasant evening until 10 o'clock, when all departed for home feeling the better for sharing their neighbors' joys.

How Much Material

Used by out of town contractors is purchased through local dealers? And how much local skilled and unskilled labor do they use? Think this over. La Grande contractors use local products and local help as nearly exclusively as possible. They live in La Grande, believe in La Grande and work for La Grande.
