DAILY THOUGHT.

Let every dawn of morning be to you as the beginning of life and every setting sun be to you as its close; then let every one of these short lives leave its sure record of some kindly thing done for others, some goodly strength or knowledge gained for yourselves.—Ruskin.

CUPID'S DISABILITY.

One never feels quite certain whether the lives that Cupid knits together will stand the wear and tear of travel or whether they will soon unravel. His so called knots turn out mere hitches, and frequently he drops his stitches. Perhaps it is the part of kindness to place the blame upon his blindness. —Judge.

STATE MOTTOES.

To the stars through difficulties.—Kansas.
Another flies on his own wings.—Oregon.
Increase and multiply.—Maryland.
With the sword she seeks a quiet peace with liberty.—Massachusetts.
I have found it.—California.
Mountaineers are always free-men.—West Virginia.
There is nothing without a providence.—Colorado.
He who transplanted still sustains.—Connecticut.

Dangers of a Cold.

Do you know that of all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the colds themselves that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that they so often lead to. For that reason every cold should be gotten rid of with the least possible delay. To accomplish this you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy of great help to you. It loosens a cold, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration and enables the system to throw off the cold. For sale by all dealers.
