

GLEE CLUB TO COME FEB. 16

WILL APPEAR AT SHERRY'S ON ONE NIGHT.

Harry Lauder Act By Harry Russell
Big Feature of the Program.

Final arrangements have been made for the appearance of the O. A. C. glee club at Sherry's theatre Monday, February 16.

The club has 24 members and are to leave Corvallis for their annual tour as soon as the mid-year exams are over.

From the reports in the Portland papers, where the club appeared, they are up to their usual standard and have a program that will please the most critical audience. They have a well arranged program with enough humor to please everyone. The program is:

1. Battle Hymn, from the opera "Rienzi".....Wagner
2. Solo: "Macushla".....Mac Morrough
3. "Absent" The O. A. C. Quartette.....Metcalfe
4. Solo: "The Clang of the Hammer".....Bonheur
5. "But they Didn't".....Rogers
6. Violin Solos.....Second Mazurka.....Henri Wienawski
7. "Bring Her Again".....Hastings
8. The Rural Trobadours.....Original
9. Scotch Monologue.....Lauder
10. Trials of a "Fusses" in pantomime.....Original
11. Reading: "Cremation of Sam McGee".....Service
12. Collegiana.....Original

Harry Russell will be remembered by those who attended the concert here two years ago, as "Harry Lauder" will again entertain with his Scotch songs. He has been the main feature of the club for the last two seasons and is performing up to his usual standard again this season. Mr. Russell refused a contract with the Orpheum circuit last summer, so evidently those that do not hear him will miss a real entertainer.

The prices will be $1.00, and ticket sale will start next Friday morning at Van Buren's. A special rate of 75c will be given to students who buy their tickets in advance.

CHANCES ARE ABOUT 5000 TO 50.

When you are quietly sitting near your heater reading the doings of the day in La Grande and the world at large about 5000 persons in this city and in the valley are doing the same. Somebody has lost an article, or may want something, or has something to sell. The simplest way to reach so many persons is to insert a little want ad in the Observer and you will be talking to about 5000 persons at the same time. Could you possibly see more than 50 of these persons in one day? It is not likely. The busy man lets others do the talking and conserves his energy for the transaction. A paper never gets out of breath, never loses energy and always puts the proposition in a few lines. If your time is worth money you can't save it more easily than by a want ad. Trying is believing. The Observer is willing to prove it.

Your job printing. Have it done at the Observer office.

A Prudent Press Agent.
"You say your star has precious stones reputed to be worth a quarter of a million?"
"Yes."
"Do you know how much they are actually worth?"
"Certainly not, and I have no desire to know that. Suppose I made an investigation and learned that they were really worthless imitations, what inspiration would I have then for those glowing flights of description on which my reputation rests?"

Great Magazine.
Bingle—What do you think of the Monthly Magazine?
Jingle—Great magazine! Fine section! I've just read the opening seventy pages about what it will contain during the next few months and shall get right at the following seventy pages about what it already has this month.—Judge.

The Impecunious Artist.
"I wish you to paint me a picture of Eve and the apple."
"Could you advance me the price of a costume?" faltered the artist.
"Why, Eve had no complicated costume."
"That's so. Well, could you advance me the price of the apple?"

An Acceptable Excuse.
"I am so embarrassed when among fashionable ladies," declared Mrs. Wombat.
"Why so?"
"I don't smoke."
"That needn't lose you any caste. Tell the other ladies that your doctor forbids it."

The Magistrate—Little boy, do you understand the nature of an oath?
Little Boy (a witness)—Oh! yes, sir. I've heard my papa use them often.

Just Satisfied.
Her name was Caprice.
And nobody blamed her.
But her parents were wise
On the day that they named her!

Sympathetic.
"Did you attend the suffragette meeting, Mrs. Winter?"
"Oh, yes, Mrs. Gadsdon, but I'm afraid I was not in rapport."
"I'm so sorry. I was telling Henry only the other day that this hot weather is going to make everybody sick."

Proof of It.
"Do you think the classics help us?"
"Yes, indeed. I threw a volume of Cicero's orations at a cat once and got a good night's rest."

Every Comfort.
"Slim Waffle certainly runs an enterprising store."
"How now?"
"Sets out cushioned crates for the loafers to roose on."

Not a New One.
"The English have made a paradoxical discovery about the suffragettes."
"What is that?"
"That they can't silence them by shutting them up."

Getting Used to It.
"Why do you fish every morning in the bathtub, old man? Is it a bot?"
"Oh, no. I just want to get used to not catching anything. Am going on vacation soon."

Biliousness and Constipation Cured.

If you are ever troubled with biliousness or constipation you will be interested in the statement of R. F. Erwin, Peru, Ind. "A year ago last winter I had an attack of indigestion followed by biliousness and constipation. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets so highly recommended, I bought a bottle of them and they helped me right away." For sale by all dealers. For Frost Bites and Chapped Skin. For frozen bitten ears, fingers and toes, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, there is nothing equal to Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Stops the pain at once and heals quickly. In every home there should be a box handy all the time. Best remedy for all skin diseases, itching eczema, etter, piles, etc. 25c. All druggists or by mail. H. E. Bucklen Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

How to Prevent Bilious Attacks.
"Coming events cast their shadows before." This is especially true of bilious attacks. Your appetite will fail, you will feel dull and languid. If you are subject to bilious attacks take three of Chamberlain's Tablets as soon as the symptoms appear and the attack may be warded off. For sale by all dealers.
