

FURNITURE STORE GROWS

HENRY & CARR TO IMPROVE FACILITIES.

Commodious Store Room for Exchange Goods and Other Lines.

Henry & Carr's furniture store is undergoing a process of enlargement. The basement which up to the present, has been put to no use, has now been floored and converted into a store room for stoves and crockery and exchanged goods. The total floor space will be about 3000 square feet, with about another 1000 feet of shelf room.

It will be well lighted with electric lights and will enable the company to carry a large stock, and store many thousand dollars' worth of furniture. The company has adopted a policy of receiving in exchange used pieces of furniture where the purchaser desires to exchange it with new articles of different design or of better value. The alterations will cost about half a thousand and will make of the store one of the most complete in this section of the state.

How to Prevent Bilious Attacks.

"Coming events cast their shadows before." This is especially true of bilious attacks. Your appetite will fail, you will feel dull and languid. If you are subject to bilious attacks take three of Chamberlain's Tablets as soon as the symptoms appear and the attack may be ward off. For sale by all dealers.

SOME PEOPLE SAY IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

A man who had been hunting property in the city came into the Observer office and inserted a WANT AD in the columns of this paper. Through this medium he succeeded in getting in touch with a party who had an acre of ground to sell together with a four-roomed cottage on the same. This he bought for $700, and everybody is congratulating him on his buy. There is no use arguing, when this paper reaches about two thousand readers every night and as many more through the weekly, your ad in a position to make known your wants to just so many people. If you had to go around and see that many people it would take you four months. Think of the time saved. But for the want ad in this paper this man would not have been in the position to make this buy. There are many such buys waiting for someone to come along and express a wish. The chances are in this case about 5000 to 50. If your time is worth something the cost of the ad is trifling.

MOTHER SLAIN; BABY UNHURT

Infant Has Inexplicable Escape From Death in Five-Story Fall.

Paris.—The concierge of a house in the Rue des Pyrenees heard the sound of a fall in the courtyard the other morning. Rushing out, he found the body of Mme. Coquelet, a fifth floor tenant, lying against the wall, and her baby crying close by. On being carried to a hospital the woman died immediately, but the child was miraculously unhurt, except that its lip was cut by a broken tooth.

Coquelet was still in bed when his wife rose to make the coffee, and the next thing he heard was that the body had been found below the kitchen window, out of which she must have thrown herself with the baby clasped in her arms. The only explanation offered by the widower is that his wife must have been laboring under a fit of neurasthenia, as he never had the slightest reason to suspect any suicidal intention, nor was there the slightest motive for her taking her life. The escape of the baby is inexplicable.

Women to Speak 24 Hours.

New York.—A 24-hour continuous meeting will be held by suffragettes here. The women will speak in relays.

HARD TO PLEASE.

A typical "mover" of the ultra-shift type was passing a few days at a camp in Arizona, preparatory to going into the desert on a prospecting trip. His wife, a tired out, faded creature, complained to some of the cowhands of the hardness of her lot; and the foreman took it upon himself to remonstrate with the husband for his shiftlessness and his indifference to his wife's welfare.

"The old woman ain't got no kick coming!" said the husband when he had heard the foreman's remarks. "She ain't got no kick at all. Why, stranger, when we wuz fixin' to camp of a night many a time I've driven the team half a mile out of the way so's wood and water would be handy fur the old woman to fetch!"—Saturday Evening Post.

Metamorphosis.

Stranger (returning to the old home town after an absence of twenty years)—Well, well, well; how little the village has changed. You remember Red Spilvins we boys used to run around with—is Red still living here yet?

Native—Is he? Well, I guess. Hey, Baldy! Baldy Spilvins! Don't you know your old friends when you see 'em? Come over here and shake hands with Sam Hankins from New York.

JUST THE THING.

"Here's a dime, Willie. Go buy something nice."
"Thanks. I'll buy an engagement ring fer me goll."

Almost Victim of Tiger.

A thrilling experience with a tiger occurred to a man named Campbell, son of the superintendent of police of Hazaribagh, India, a few days ago. Campbell was cycling from Hazaribagh to Hazaribagh Station, a distance of forty-two miles, when at the twentieth mile, he noticed a road roller on the side of the road, and as he approached this object a huge tiger which had been sleeping suddenly sprang up and barred further progress. Campbell, who has only one arm, did not have any other weapon than an ordinary small pistol. Being an experienced hunter, seeing the man-eater about to spring, he dismounted his cycle and placing the machine in front of him, scared the tiger away. The animal made its way into the jungle, which is very thick at that part of the road, and young Campbell, mounting his bicycle made off. There has been a large increase in man-eaters in the Hazaribagh district of late, owing to the decrease in the rewards for their capture.

Had Her Eye on Him.

A well known writer was present recently at a dress rehearsal of a comedy played by amateurs at a London theater. The rehearsal went well, but the hero, whom we will call B., seemed rather hard and cold. The novelist sat in the stalls next to a charming lady of middle age. She said, at the end of the third act: "It goes beautifully, doesn't it?"

"Beautifully," said the gentleman. "But B—doesn't make love to that pretty girl in as ardent a manner as I could wish. His love-making, in fact, strikes me as very tame and spiritless."

"The lady frowned. 'He won't put any more spirit in it while I've got my eye on him, let me tell you,' she said. 'I'm Mrs. B—'"

Tragic Cook.

Guest (who has been invited to supper by an actress)—Our hostess prepared this little feast with her own hands, she tells me. What do you say to that?

The Guest (shrugging his shoulders)—That she is a tragedienne in the art of cookery, also.

Putting it Differently.

"Miss Wombat, will you be mine?" "Never."
The young man was jarred but not wholly discouraged. Presently he came back in this fashion:
"Well, will you let me be yours?"

TOO GREAT A RISK.

The Guide—Now, ez soon ez I kin borrow a dog we'll be ready for your huntin' trip.
The Amateur Sport—Why, what's the matter with your own dog?
The Guide—Oh! he's too valuable!

Drawing the Line.

Although my heart is tender
And crush a bug I wouldn't,
I could not love a cockroach—
I simply couldn't!
