

RECORDER AT ELGIN MOVED

WEEKLY NEWSPAPER OFFICE TO HAVE BETER HOME.

Personal Mention and News Items From Elgin Territory.

Elgin, Feb. 9.—(Special.)—The building occupied by the Elgin Recorder has been pried from its firm base and moved to the rear part of the same lots, facing the west instead of the south. The moving has caused the publishers much bother, necessitating the printing of the paper in La Grande. Things will be in shape so that the paper will be printed locally as usual, next week.

J. H. Barnes and Son have added a new portion to their garage, and this will give them much more room for storage. "Dad" is expectin' a car o' Fords in fust o' April.

Geo. Flagg, of the Elgin Recorder, went to La Grande Wednesday evening to superintend the printing of the Recorder.

Rube Shockley is rapidly recovering from his injuries which he sustained while working in the woods up Indian creek. Reuben presents a rather wry face and a few scratches there-on.

Herbert St. Peters is on the list of the indisposed this week.

Mrs. Wm. Aubin is up from the Junction, visiting a few days with friends and relatives.

Mrs. F. B. Hooper of Telocaset, was in town this week, visiting with her parents-in-law.

Miss Maggie Workman was a passenger to La Grande Saturday, returning Monday.

Mrs. Ellis Young is spending the week with relatives in this place.

Uncle Billy Hindman was the most entertaining host at a party at his home on the Flat, Wednesday night. Many were the games they played, and they never stopped until daylight was very much in evidence.

Miss Mildred Smith visited her brother, Alfred, who is recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

in the Grande Ronde hospital, at La Grande. "Bud" is slowly regaining his strength and will be around in a few days.

Mrs. Dora Becker was a west bound passenger on the train Wednesday.

Jesse Crum was in the county seat Wednesday night with his wife who is taking treatment there.

Miss Lydia Austin returned from Portland where she went with her sister Mrs. Chas. Riggs, who sustained an operation for appendicitis.

Prof. Heuston reports no tardiness in high school last week. Some record! A week!

Read the advertisements too.

IT DOES PAY TO ADVERTISE.

A watch was lost. It was a valuable keepsake, but bore no identification marks. The owner had a WANT AD inserted in this paper and like clockwork the watch was delivered at this office and turned over to the owner. People are generally honest and will return articles found. A few lines in this paper did the work. Would any rational man say that advertising did not pay? You are communicating some kind of information. The God given method is by word of mouth, but while you are talking to one man, six boys are distributing your wants to 2000 readers of this paper. There is really no comparison. People of the city learned through the medium of this paper that there were men and women in need. The response to the call for help was instant; the needy read about the work of the committee and made personal requests for help. You can advertise any kind of trade. You can buy land, horses, fruit, etc., because there is somebody in this valley with that article to sell. Try it, that's the proof.

THE JOY OF DANCING EXERCISE
Very few women or men seem to care to Tango or get Dancing Exercise unless they are assured the freedom from aching feet that Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, always gives. Since the tendency to hold Dancing parties has become almost a daily and hourly necessity in every community, the sale of Allen's Foot-Ease, so the Druggists remark, has reached the high-water mark. Sold Every Where. Trial package Free. Address Allen S. Omsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

CAUSES AND EFFECT

Harold—I've got an—aw—beastly headache this morning, doncher know.

Hattie—What caused it?

Harold—A howl thought struck me last night.

SURE THING

Mrs. Justwed—You must not expect me to give up my girlhood ways all at once.

Mr. Justwed—That's all right, go right on taking an allowance from your father just as if nothing had happened.

A Lost Heirloom.

"There is no gout in Sir Percy's family, is there?"
"Not now; there was formerly. It was introduced into the family by Sir Roland Highliver, but they have been so miserably poor for the last 200 years that they couldn't keep it up."—Puck.

GENTLE HINT.

Jack—Just to think, I have been calling here seven years and Cupid has been lurking around the old sofa all that time.

Ruth—Gracious! The little fellow must be gray by this time.

Inspiration Suggested a Way Out.
It was the morning after, and he was telling the fellows at the office about it. "Tom and I spent last evening with some friends and were returning to our hotel at a rather late hour. We walked in the middle of the street, for we felt so good we wanted room in which to expand. At a place where some work was being done there was a pile of dirt about five feet long and about ten inches high. Arm in arm we made an effort to step over the obstruction. We met with utter failure. Try as we might, our feet seemed to be too heavy to lift over the obstruction. We were about to give up in despair and resign ourselves to being marooned on that lonely street for the rest of the night, when I had one of those rare inspirations that come only to men of genius. 'Tom,' I exclaimed, 'we are saved; we will go around this pile of dirt.' And we did."—Kansas City Star.

CHANCES ARE ABOUT 5000 TO 50.

When you are quietly sitting near your heater reading the doings of the day in La Grande and the world at large about 5000 persons in this city and in the valley are doing the same. Somebody has lost an article, or may want something, or has something to sell. The simplest way to reach so many persons is to insert a little want ad in the Observer and you will be talking to about 5000 persons at the same time. Could you possibly see more than 50 of these persons in one day? It is not likely. The busy man lets others do the talking and conserves his energy for the transaction. A paper never gets out of breath, never loses energy and always puts the proposition in a few lines. If your time is worth money you can't save it more easily than by a want ad. Trying is believing. The Observer is willing to prove it.
