

FLUNKERS AT "U" DISMISSED

BAKER STUDENT SETS UNUSUAL MARK IN STUDIES.

Those Failing Increased Over Former Years By Higher Standard.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Feb. 13.—(Special.)—Saddened by contemplation of 33 fellow students departing for home, University of Oregon men and women are settling down today to a semester of work that seems likely to be uncommonly faithful. The resolutions heard upon every hand are all for hard work, at any rate, and the students say it will be many semesters before another such cleanup has to be made by the faculty.

Of 700 students taking examinations on the campus, a great number was failed or conditioned in from two to six hours of work but succeeded in passing enough hours to remain in college. A freshman must make eight or more hours; other classes must make nine or more hours. Most of those getting "F's" or conditions in a certain subject, consequently, made hours enough in other subjects to be safe. Those making less than the required eight or nine hours numbered 40, most of them second or third year students. Freshmen failing totaled only seven but many others lost hours.

Of the 40 "flunkers," only seven were reinstated.

The story of "flunks" and conditions is by no means the only one to go from the university this semester, however. That rare distinction, an "All H" card, went to one young woman, Miss Beulah Stebno, a junior carrying 17 hours. Miss Anna Neufeld of Portland, received "H" in 12 hours and "S" (superior) in five, with no grade below "S". Miss Maude Mastick of Portland, received eight hours of "H" and 10 hours of "S". Miss Neufeld finished college with this examination. Miss Mastick is a senior.

The best showing among freshmen was made by a Baker, Oregon boy Frederick E. Melzer. He made "H" in 15 hours and "M" (medium) in one. His honors were in subjects considered among the most difficult: Advanced algebra, Greek, English composition and chemistry; the "M" was in practical ethics.

Examinations were little harder than usual this year but the gradual stiffening of the Oregon standard resulted in closer marking and in a disposition among the faculty to send home any student who failed to make hours, unless unusual cause could be shown.

Fifty new students have entered for the second semester, the largest second semester crowd in years. The number is believed to herald another big freshman class next fall.

How to Prevent Bilious Attacks.

"Coming events cast their shadows before." This is especially true of bilious attacks. Your appetite will fail, you will feel dull and languid. If you are subject to bilious attacks take three of Chamberlain's Tablets as soon as the symptoms appear and the attack may be warded off. For sale by all dealers.
