WALLOWA CLUB HERE TONIGHT

RINK TO BE USED FOR FAST INTER-CLUB GAME.

High School Five Off Today On Two-Game Trip to Wallowa.

Tonight's train will bring in the fast Wallowa Club basketball team and the game with the M. I. A. A. is scheduled to begin at the rink this evening at 8 o'clock. The M. I. A. A. will use its regular lineup, while Wallowa brings former college stars and amateurs who have been picked from the best material in Wallowa county. The game promises to develop much speed and as the floor is spacious there should be ample passing to make the game snappy and interesting, giving the best team work possible.

Highs Off On Junket.

The high school five left today for its first trip of the year, going to Wallowa for a game tonight and Joseph Saturday night. The high quint has played both of these teams, but away from home and on new floors the chances for defeat are more pronounced. Coach Olsan accompanied by Mrs. Olsan are with the boys.

SARGENT IN PRIMARY RACE

SEEKS REPRESENTATIVE TO GO FROM UNION COUNTY.

Lays Down Policy Upon Which He Will Enter the Primary.

Wm. B. Sargent, who contemplates race for state representative.

Another republican entry is about to be made in the race for the state legislature for this county. W. B. Sargent has about made up his mind to enter the marathon and compete with some of the sprinters for the goal that lies at Salem. This race calls for endurance and the proper kind of grit, much good wind and stick-to-it-iveness. In an interview this morning he did not give the matter this allegorical aspect, but confined his remarks to things, which in all likelihood, the taxpayer is interested in. His platform is sane tax legislation.

Mr. Sargent plans to make the payment of taxes come at a time when the farmer and the merchant have money with which to pay them. Dec. 1st is the day according to his scheme. He would further take off the penalty provision which he thinks unjust. He thinks it puts the state in the class of the unjust and merciless loan shark.

Being a lawyer, Mr. Sargent naturally has something to say concerning the economical operation of the court. He would establish a claims court where all disputes amounting to $50 could be settled without the intervention of a lawyer and at practically no cost. He is not in sympathy with the clogged condition of the court, much of whose time is taken up by the trial of some small cases of little importance. Common sense would be the rule in this court, or, as he expressed, he would make "common horse sense the arbiter of all petty troubles."

He would limit the initiative and the referendum. On this point Mr. Sargent had not fully made up his mind, as to just what he would do, but declared that he thought some sort of limitation should be put on the use of this otherwise meritorious measure.

"How are you on good roads?" he was asked.

"I am absolutely for good roads, first, last and all the time. I would make it a district proposition, making either the county the unit, as it is now, or even divide the county into districts and float bonds for the building of permanent roads, such as municipal bonds are floated for improvement purposes."

"What is your stand on low enforcement?"

"I certainly favor enforcing the laws that exist, but I am not in sympathy with such grand standing as was enacted in Copperfield. That was not law enforcement but spectacular play to the galleries, by the chief comedian of the state. If the people don't want me they won't elect me, and I see no reason for chicanery and subterfuge. That's just what I think about the whole matter and you may say it in just way?"

"My big program will be sane tax laws, a redemption of the state in this respect. We have gotten the name of being the most 'freakish' state in the Union and I want to do something worth while to redeem the state's good name."

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned wish to thank the neighbors and friends for their kind assistance and sympathy during the illness and death of their husband and father, John Milton Hagey. Mrs. Nancy E. Hagey and Family.

HANLEY QUILTS WATER USERS

"BEE BUZZING IN MY BONNET," HE ADMITS.

Irrigation Congress Thrown Into Excitement By Resignation.

Portland, Feb. 13.—The opening session of the Oregon Irrigation congress was given a sensation when Wm. Hanley, after Mayor Albee had delivered his address of welcome, submitted his resignation as president. It was accepted. "I've got a political bee buzzing in my bonnet and I don't intend to head any organization until it leaves me." It is said that Hanley referred to his candidacy for the United States senatorship.

Rev. Miller Leaves Joseph.

Rev. J. W. Miller, who some time ago was offered the Methodist pastorate of Nampa, Idaho, a town of 3000 people, finally accepted the assignment and leaves today with his family for that place, says the Joseph Herald.

During their 2 1/2 years' stay in this city, Rev. Miller and family have made many friends who regret their departure, but all wish them well in their new field of labor.

District Superintendent W. A. Winters came up from La Grande Tuesday and between trains met with our church board for the purpose of appointing a new minister to take Rev. Miller's place here.

Rev. J. R. Payne, who recently came to this county from North Dakota, and has made Enterprise for the last three months, accepted the appointment and will take charge at once. His wife and their child, a son, will be here the latter part of the week from Enterprise. The son, Edward R., will attend the local high school.

During the past ten days the office has been re-papered and new linoleum laid on the floor, and a new coat of paint will be added soon which will renovate the office in good shape.

Mr. H. W. Sherman, eastern representative of the Grande Ronde Lumber company, whose sales offices are located in Chicago, arrived at Perry this morning. Mr. Sherman will remain in this vicinity for a few days, visiting the local mills.

Rev. Drahn of the Lutheran church, was unable to fill his appointment in the local pulpit last Wednesday evening but will be at Perry Friday night.

Mr. C. F. Robertson, the mill sawyer, together with his family returned from Portland this week where they visited relatives. They report having had an enjoyable time.

Morris Rosenbaum, the store manager, is now on the sick list, suffering from a severe cold. He will be able to be around, it is reported, in the next few days.
