CLUB SINGERS DRAW PRAISES

COLLECTIVELY AND INDIVIDUALLY, THEY EXCEL.

Violinist Is Genius—Reader and Lauder Impersonation Good.

With a dash and "Pep" born of confidence and experience, the O. A. C. glee club performed for an admiring audience of considerable size at the Sherry theatre last evening—performed as a unit, as individuals, and in twos and threes. Meritorious was the performance, too, and the club personified the press agent promises that the club is better than it has ever been. It is more evenly balanced, better in the ensembles, better in stunts.

L. Ross Johnson, the noted tenor, is the first individual performer on the program, and is good, though much is expected of him as he is a musician by profession. George Randolph Thomas, on the other hand, is a student with singing as a side line, and it is quite a line with him, too. His "The Clang of the Hammer," by Bonheur, was one of the best rendered numbers. The club has a few classics, but throws in sufficient light stuff to make their program popular. Encores were invariably popular airs, parodies and ditties that popularized the club immensely. In fact encores were usually better than program numbers.

Nothing more or less can be said of Laurence Skipton, the club violinist, than that he is a genius. Young, inexperienced, a mere boy in fact, he produces tones that are perfect, has a technique that is far above the average, and has before him a very bright future. Wieniawski's Second Mazurka was his opening number, but it was marred by a group of giddy people in front rows that should have been summarily removed. Skipton stopped in the middle of his number, and then proceeded. The noise continued and the musician again stopped and requested silence. From then on he settled down to as fine rendition of violin music as La Grande has heard in years. He was called out three times, and came back with something better each time—a remarkable feat in itself.

The stunt program was short and snappy. The trials of a "Fussess" is a pantomime which the club puts on in very creditable shape. The idea is original and novel. Joy W. Scudder has a beautiful reading voice and is polished in his business. He was required to "come back" and he added to his versatility by giving a character reading. Fun and good music, by the way is cast into the program by the Royal Troubadours, a gang of wandering bards. The program is brought to a close with a piece of real classic impersonation. Henry Russell, a student in the club, does the famous Scotch comedian, Harry Lauder stunts and does them remarkably well. His voice is perfect, his broad smile soothing, his looks good, his physique truly Robert Bruce, and his dialect refreshing. Lauder is reported to have been offered a flattering sum to take his act on the vaudeville circuit, and if he does he will have something far superior to offer than the vaudeville Lauders than one sees now days. It is the Russells, the Scudders, the Skiptons, the Thomases and the Johnsons of the O. A. C. glee club that round out and make well nigh perfect a program of classics, college songs parodies and comic stuff. The club as a whole is mechanical excellent, good from a standpoint of voices, well supplied with crisp stunts, and therefore a good attraction to send on the road. It is succeeding and deserves to.

CITY BOWLING LEAGUE FORMS

SCHEDULE TO COMMENCE FEBRUARY 19.

Crowe, Williams, Scott and Patton Will Captain the Several Teams.

The newly organized city league has formed with four teams in the field, the schedule has been drawn, and will run from February 19 to March 27, each team meeting the others three times. The captains of the teams are Crowe, Williams, Scott and Patton, and the best of the La Grande bowlers will be seen in the line-ups. The boys have their minds on the big tournament in Portland, and it is more than likely that the six or ten leading bowlers in the league will enjoy a trip to the big congress in the rose city in April.

A fine boost has been given the La Grande bowlers by their team mate, Poe Caylor, in Los Angeles, who says that he has not seen any wonderful bowlers down there and that several of the La Granders can more than hold their own with the bowlers of that city.

The first game of the local league will be Thursday night, when Crowe's team will meet Patton's team.

A Strong Endorsement.

W. H. Holmes of the Decorah, Ia., Journal says: "I have been a sufferer from Piles and Hemorrhoids for years. I got no relief until my druggist recommended Meritol Pile Remedy. Before I had taken half the package the distress was gone and I have had no trouble since. I would not take a thousand dollars and be back in former condition."

NEWLIN DRUG COMPANY.

Not a Bit Conceited.

Wife—You are positively the most conceited man I ever met. Hub—I conceited? Woman, there's not a conceited bone in my body. Why, another man with the same abilities would be absolutely carried away with pride—Exchange.

Made Quite a Difference.

Miss Watson—Did Mr. Sark say to you as I entered the drawing room last night, Clara, "Is that the beautiful Miss Watson?" Clara—Yes, dear, with the accent on the "that"—Exchange.

A Scoop.

John L. Toole, the famous English comedian and practical joker, and Mr. Justice Hawkins, who was afterward Lord Brampton, were great friends. They were at supper together one evening discussing the events of the day. The judge incidentally mentioned that he intended on the morrow giving the man he had been trying fifteen years because he deserved it. As Toole was leaving he blandly inquired: "Oh, would you mind calling at the newspaper offices and telling them about that fifteen years? It will be a tip for them—exclusive information, you know—and will do me no end of good with the press."

"Good gracious! No, sir!" exclaimed the judge, who took the precaution of accompanying Toole to his hotel and seeing him safely to bed.

Mohammedan Serenity.

A Mohammedan people enjoy one great advantage over all others—they never suffer from the anticipation of that which is to come, and, as a natural result, they can always enjoy the present, although only a few hours may separate them from disaster or even from death. Their implicit belief in an ordained future imparts a dignified repose and outward calm to all their actions.—Blackwood's Magazine.

The Feminine Paradox.

The uneducated woman has often the quickest perception, the finest tact, the most vivid sensibility. She will feel without speaking; she understands your inmost thoughts; she knows without being told.—London Black and White.

The First Skyscraper.

The first skyscraper was planned (but not built) by a Parisian architect in the year 1601. It was to be more than 300 feet high and provide rooms for 500 persons.

A Good Example.

Father—Why did you run away, Franz? Franz—Because mamma was so unkind. Father—That is no reason. Do I run away?

Good manners are the blossoms of good sense and good feeling.

Saving money is like

planting your garden

WHEN you plant money in the bank you expect it to bring you a harvest of profit and pleasure—same as your garden

And like the produce of your garden it grows best with careful attention—till it becomes a harvest—a fortune. Now is "planting time." Think it over
