

This is Certainly Good News-- A Gossard Corset At $2.00

There are many women in La Grande who have hesitated in the selection of a front lace corset because they did not care to invest $3.50 in a Gossard.

The objection to price has now been removed and we are offering a new and distinctive model at $2. This corset has a medium bust, flat back, long skirt with ample fullness and is designed to meet the requirements of the average figure perfectly. Office women, who of necessity must wear their corsets throughout the day, will find this garment ideal.

It is made in a splendid Everlast cloth and, like all Gossard Corsets, it is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction in both wearing service and design. Priced at $2.00.

ELGIN PARENTS VISIT SCHOOL

MUCH GOOD COMES OF PARENT-TEACHER CLUB.

Personal News and Mention From Elgin and Vicinity.

Elgin, Feb. 13.—(Special.)—The second Patrons' Day in the Elgin schools was held here Feb. 13. It was a general success, because so many of the parents were present. The second grade, under the guidance of Miss Clark rendered a very interesting program. Superintendent Ivanhoe addressed the audience with a most pleasing speech.

Miss Grace Hignman was a visitor in Imbler Wednesday.

Sheriff A. Hug was in the city between trains Friday.

Miss Rose Zeiwel of Summerville, is spending a few days with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Zweifel.

Mr. Frank Smith was a passenger on the west bound train Thursday.

Miss Truelove is again able to resume her duties in the sixth grade.

She has been sick for three weeks.

Miss Alice Shelton, Miss Vera Hudson, Miss Hazel Graham and Orion Hudson were among those who went to Imbler Wednesday to the O. A. C. glee club. Evidently from the reports, the programme was splendid and well attended.

Mr. Earl Chandler returned this week from Portland where he has been attending to business matters for two weeks.

Rev. Crimes visited the Elgin high school Wednesday afternoon.

In remembrance of the honored Abraham Lincoln, classes were dismissed during the third period in the morning, and Mr. C. Kronenberg read of some of the things of interest in Lincoln's presidential career.

Mrs. Roy Frazier and her sister Mrs. May Kennedy of Denver, Colo., who is visiting in this city witnessed the program rendered by the O. A. C. glee club in Imbler Wednesday.

The Burns program was postponed Friday, due to patrons' day. It will be given next Friday.

The Rev. Gillstrap and Crimes will begin holding protracted meetings in the Highland school house Friday.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Union. O. D. Thomlinson, Plaintiff; vs. Jeremiah McKean, and Mrs. Jeremiah McKean, James G. Welch, and Sarah A. Welch, and all other persons, or parties unknown, claiming any interest in, lien upon, or claim to the land described in the complaint, Defendants.

To Jeremiah McKean, and Mrs. Jeremiah McKean, and James G. Welch, and Sarah A. Welch, and all other persons, or parties unknown, claiming any interest in, lien upon, or claim to the land described in the complaint, in this suit the defendants above named. You and each of you are hereby notified and required to be and appear in the above entitled Court and answer the complaint therein filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and you are hereby notified that if you fail so to appear and answer, the Plaintiff will, for want thereof, apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit: That the Plaintiff, be decreed to be the owner in fee of the following described land in Union County, State of Oregon, to-wit: Lot five in Block twenty-two in the town of North Powder, in Union County, State of Oregon, according to the plat thereof, now of record in the office of the Recorder of Conveyances of Union County, State of Oregon, and that Plaintiff's title thereto be quieted.

This Summons is published by order of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Union County, of date 6th day of January, A. D., 1914, directing publication of this summons in the La Grande Evening Observer, once each week for six consecutive weeks, and the first publication of this summons is on Wednesday, the 7th day of January, A. D., 1914.

J. D. SLATER,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

PORTLAND MERCHANTS

and well known local trade celebrities.

Mayor Albee and wife occupied a loge, and indeed the entire theater was dotted with men whose position in and works for Portland are of wide knowledge in both city and state.

The theater program, especially arranged and amplified by Manager Coffinberry, was preceded by a brief welcome by the genial manager in his characteristic style of whole-hearted sincerity.

Every act of the show was a headliner. Leo Carillo, the inimitable monologist, playfully revised his act in order to direct convulsive puns at the grocers. Nor did he forget the manufacturers and jobbers, who occupied boxes, in his satirical allusions to the high cost of living. Grocers and prominent salesmen were included in the witty fusillade of Carillo, who proved himself to be an exceptional entertainer.

Play Is Localized.

Succeeding acts aside from their usual merit were alive with references to the merchant, manufacturer, and jobber, and found immediate response from the audience, who applauded each offering in unanimous appreciation. It was an evening of continuous enjoyment and one during which petty troubles, vexations and cares were thrown abandonably to the winds by those whose daily duty it is to feed the critical, complaining consumers of a great city.

Those who had not permitted themselves a bona fide laugh of pure enjoyment for years found themselves ravenously in a side-splitting, tear-provoking tonic for the blues before the curtain was lowered on the last act.

When a business man is afflicted with troubles and bugaboos there is nothing that will sooner effect a cure than a good hard uncontrollable laugh, and if the La Grande theater party served no greater purpose than to have caused the slightest snicker among the long-faced grouches which we occasionally see behind a grocery counter it has served well.

Amateur Picture Play Pleases.

The theater party was closed with an amateur picture play entitled "Portland's Courtesy to the Out-of-Town Buyer." The scenario was written by Grace F. Cummins, a local artist and playwright.

Here are the firms with their representatives who assisted both personally and materially in promoting the first amateur moving picture play in the northwest:

Allen & Lewis—F. A. Spencer, W. F. Greer.

Closet & Devers—Mr. Bane.

Hazelwood Creamery—Carl Schallinger, W. F. Goodhue, Happy Dunne.

Zan Bros.—Jordan Zan and Dom J. Zan.

W. B. Glafke & Co.—W. B. Glafke.

Luckel, King & Cake Soap Co.—J. C. Luckel.

Royal Bakery and Confectionery—J. A. Heusner.

Pacific Coast Biscuit Co.—F. A. Bale.

Wadham & Kerr—Samuel Kerr, Frank Kerr.

Union Meat Co.—C. C. Colt, A. C. Black.

Log Cabin Bakery—F. H. Rittman.

Hazelwood Store—G. C. Joyce, F. H. Joyce.

Portland Flouring Mills Co.—F. L. Shull, H. O. Connor.

The play concluded an evening of surprises which will remain implanted in the memory of those present for a long period. Enough profit was realized from the party to assure a large delegation to La Grande, "the Eastern Oregon metropolis" in June.

Colds and Croup in Children.

Many people rely upon Chamberlain's Cough Remedy implicitly in cases of colds and croup, and it never disappoints them. Mrs. E. H. Thomas, Logansport, Ind., writes "I have found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best medicine for colds and croup I have ever used, and never tire of recommending it to my neighbors and friends. I have always given it to my children when suffering from croup, and it has never failed to give them prompt relief." For sale by all dealers.
