

EARLY HISTORY IS RECORDED

ONE OF THE FIRST WOMEN TO PASS THROUGH GRANDE RONDE VALLEY ISSUES BOOK OF REMINISCENCES.

Mrs. Sarah J. Cummins, mother of Mrs. E. W. P. Allen, of La Grande, now living with a son at Weston, Oregon, has just issued a 66 page booklet of early day reminiscences which will prove of interest to early as well as present day inhabitants of the Grande Ronde Valley. Mrs. Cummins, as a bride at the age of seventeen years, passed through the Grande Ronde Valley in 1845, some 69 years ago, being one of the earliest Oregon settlers to make the trip overland. Their party was a large one, and to its strength they owed their successful though arduous trip from the Missouri river to the Willamette valley, which was their objective point. At the head of the Grande Ronde valley they were halted two days by a large war party of Walla Walla and Cayuse Indians, who came across with the express purpose of murdering the whites or forcing them to return.

ing them to return. The bold front presented by the emigrants, coupled with the arrival of Dr. Whitman and a party of Nez Perce Indians, averted the calamity and the journey was continued.

These and many other incidents of like nature make the book interesting reading. While it is issued by Mrs. Cummins essentially as a family autobiography, copies will be placed on sale for 50 cents each, to defray the expense of printing and in securing the comforts of old age.

Mrs. Allen expects a visit from her mother at an early date.

The booklets can be secured from the Newlin Book and Stationary Company and at Allen's Grocery Store and as the present issue is limited to 250 copies the probability is that they will soon be exhausted, as the present number to be disposed of in La Grande is but twenty-five.

PIN ROLLERS SHOW CLASS

Pins were flying high at the Club Alleys Wednesday night when the Billikens and Alley Rats rolled for the top rung of the City League ladder. The Billikens were leading with three won and none lost while the Rats were second with two won and one lost. This game was discussed freely among the bowling enthusiasts of the city, and sentiment was about half and half. The Rats proved themselves equal to the task by trimming the smiling Billikens two out of three after losing the first game by the narrow margin of 40 pins. Patton had high score and high average for the evening with 222 and 624 respectively. Brown and Bacon also rolled well for the winners, while Scott, Farrar, McLeod and Kohl rolled in good form for the vanquished five. On Thursday nights the Alley Rats rolled William's "Webfoots" and won 2281 to 2246. The Wednesday score was:
