Mount Vernon.

Mount Vernon passed into the hands of the Mount Vernon association just prior to the war between the states. It was purchased from the Washington heirs for $200,000. Of the purchase money about half was raised by Edward Everett through his lectures and the balance by the ladies of the association. Each state represented in the association has a special room in the mansion. The place is kept in faultless repair and vandalism is made well nigh impossible by the careful watching. During the war Mount Vernon was, by mutual consent, neutral ground, and the wearers of the blue and the wearers of the gray often met before the tomb of the great American, who was loved equally by north and south.

Hospitality.

The appetite of the guest was a keen one, and he was doing full justice to the excellent dinner provided by his host. The little daughter of the house watched him open mouthed for awhile. Then finally she smiled on him brightly and said: "Oh, I do wish you were here to dinner every day!"

"The guest beamed with satisfaction. "Do you, my dear? Why?" he inquired. "Because," came the unexpected reply, "there won't be anything cold to eat tomorrow."—London Tit-Bits.

Discipline.

"How do you get your constituents so thoroughly accustomed to implicit reliance on your word?" "Well," replied Senator Sorghum, "I made 'em understand at the outset that if they didn't accept my statements they'd have to listen to a long string of statistics."—Washington Post

Wasted Effort.

"He never spans his son, does he?" "No; he's an efficiency crank." "What's that got to do with it?" "He says the upward stroke is lost motion."—Houston Post.

Indignant Denial.

"Prisoner, have you any collateral account?" "No, sah; an dat man's a liar what sold I even den teched any"—Baltimore American.

The gem cannot be polished without friction, nor man perfected without trials.

Ebony Backed Brushes.

When you clean the ebony brushes in your toilet table rub petroleum jelly over the backs before you wash the bristles as this prevents the soda or ammonia in the water from injuring the ebony. The jelly should afterward be removed by polishing the back with a dry cloth.

Entertainment For All.

"A party which can get a lot of entertainment out of her mirror," observes an eye-brow.

"True," said a plain girl who thinks she is pretty.—Boston Transcript.

No Deception.

Wife—You deceived me. When you married me you said you had a job on the road. Hub. Well, so I have; only it's a long time in waiting.—Baltimore American.

Evolution.

Little Tommy Tucker sang for his supper so successfully that friends raised a subscription and donated him for grand opera. Now he sings under the name of Signor Tommasino Tucker and is a famous lion.—Pittsburgh Post.

Cats.

Felix (the alley cat)—Don't it get your back up? Selim (the house cat)—What? Felix—Hearin' them scrappy dimes call each other cats.—Kansas City Star.

Luck whines, labor whistles. Luck relies on chance, labor on character.—Richard Cobden.

THE JOY OF DANCING EXERCISE

Very few women or men seem to care to Tango or get Dancing Exercise unless they are assured the freedom from aching feet that Allen's Foot-Powder, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, always gives. Since the tendency to hold Dancing parties has become almost a daily and hourly necessity in every community, the sale of Allen's Foot-Powder, so the Druggists report, has reached the high-water mark. Sold Everywhere 25c. Trial package Free. Address Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.
