Paul J. Rainey's African hunt is to be told by the film route in La Grande March 11 and 12 at the Arcade theatre. This will be the first time that this film has been shown outside of the big city theatres. A great deal of time and money has been spent to picture Rainey's tour.

The Rainey expedition consisted of 35 white men, 325 black men, 133 camels, 40 horses, 60 dogs, 54 oxen, and 150 sheep on the hoof. Mr. Rainey, Prof. Hiller of the Smithsonian Institute, and others, and their personal retainers, met Mr. Allen Black of Australia, and Mr. Augustus Outram of The Transvaal, at Port Said, and while traveling to Mombassa, completed their plans. Dr. William Johnson was added as physician and surgeon, and a staff of photographers. At Mombassa the complete Safari, or hunting journey, was arranged. Black giants of the Wakhmandas and Kharkuas, the courageous inky Massi, and smart Somalis, all African tribesmen noted for their endurance and other worthy qualities, accompanied the expedition, some as employes and carriers and the remainder for the love of the sport. Mr. Rainey's expedition cost him over $250,000 and the time consumed was about one year.

Prices, children 10 cents, adults, 25.
