

OUR NEW NO. 3-6 FOLDING POCKET ANSCO

The Camera you need for Sunday and every day in the week.

Any priced Camera you want can be procured through us, from $2.00 up. ALL PHOTOGRAPHIC CHEMICALS are in our stock, and we make all kinds of Toning and Developing Solutions.

HILL'S DRUG STORE

The Rexall Store

LOCAL BREVITIES.

AnSCO Cameras—Hills Drug Store. 3-6-tf

Red Cross—The Kodak Store. 3-3-tf

Let us develop your films. Hills Drug store. 3-11-3t

Let us develop your film. Red Cross Drug Store. 3-16-tf

Cabbage plants are now ready. La Grande Seed & Floral Co. 3-14-tf

Mrs. Geo. Cochran will entertain the afternoon session of the Kaffe Klatch Friday afternoon. 3-14-3t

MONEY TO LOAN.

On improved real property in Union county, no delays, current rates. La Grande Investment company.

St. Patrick's social at Baptist church Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. All ladies are to bring box suppers for two, which will be auctioned off to the gentlemen. Everybody welcome. 3-14-3t

Your shoe repairing done in first class manner, from best material, at L. J. French Shoe Store by S. C. Kingsley. 2-2, tf.

A. T. Christiansen, the barber, has sold his interest to his brother Mark, and will move to Salt Lake where he will make his future home.

Call at our Greenhouses. La Grande Seed & Floral Co. 3-14-tf

RITTER

The photographer in your town. 1-1-tf.

MONEY TO LOAN on improved farm lands. Call red 3831. 3-5-6t

Chas. B. Orai left for Portland last night as a delegates of the Wing, Fin & Fleet Foot club to attend the meeting of all sportsmen of the state whose object it will be to form a statewide sportsmen's association. Mr. Orai was formerly deputy game warden for this section and is familiar with game and its care.

Calico Ball, Rex hall, March 17.

Alfalfa seed for sale. Price reasonable. Phone black 3141. 3-7-tf

CARPET AND RUG FACTORY—1802 East Pennsylvania Ave., between Cove and Island City avenues. Rag and Fluff work; scientific cleaning. Phone Black 1521.

The Evening Observer on sale at Newlin Book store and the Club.

She is coming tonight. Who?

Subjects for the Zion Lutheran church tomorrow are: Morning, "The Two Crucifixions" and evening, "The Bible Teaches Concerning the Lord's Supper."

We pay best prices for second hand furniture. Dyal's Furniture store, next to Geddes grocery. Phone black 3351. 3-2-tf

A Trip Around the World social at the I. O. O. F. Hall at Island City Friday, March 20. Open at 6 o'clock for supper. Watch for future announcements. 3-14-tf.

Shores' Taxi Service. Sommer Hotel, Main 740. 2-21-tf.

Calico Ball, Rex hall, March 17.

Read the advertisements too.

Saturday night a benefit ball will be given at Danceland hall for the bowlers who are to be sent to Portland to participate in the northwest bowling tournament.

PERSONALS.

J. H. Dobbin of Joseph, and E. A. Hall of Hot Lake, were registered at the Foley yesterday.

C. A. Nicholds of the La Grande Grocery company, left this morning for branch line points.

Mrs. Annie Conrad, of La Grande, left this morning for Elgin where she is engaged in teaching school.

Ethel Pierce left this morning for Imbler to resume her work as teacher in the public schools.

W. F. Hendricks, the local piano tuner, left this morning for branch line points.

George H. Currey returned today from Forest Grove, where he has been transacting business matters.

Mrs. Fannie G. Sparks left this morning en route to Milton where they will visit for an indefinite time.

Miss Bartrom, of this city, left today for Pendleton where she will accept a position as stenographer.

Conductor and Mrs. Harry Grady left last night for Portland where they will visit for an indeterminate period.

Professor Houston, principal of the Elgin schools, returned to that city this morning after transacting business in this city.

Mr. Peterson, of Walla Walla, who has been in the city for a number of days on business, returned this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Renfrow, of Flora, passed through the city this morning en route to Milton, where they will visit for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Harriet McDonald has returned from Hot Lake where she has been taken treatments. She considers herself much improved.

Jno. Baker, of Joseph, passed through the city this morning en route to Pendleton where he will transact business for a number of days.

Geo. Fairchild of Kennewick, Wn., is in the city on business. He is an old tillicum of Adna Rodgers, secretary of the Elks.

Mrs. Ada Pedroza, of Goldfield, Nevada, passed through the city this morning on her way to Wallawa where she will be the guest of relatives for an indeterminate time.

Mrs. Williamson of Wallawa, mother of Chas. Williamson, drug clerk for Silverthorn's, left for home this morning after several days' visit with her son in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson of Tacoma, passed through the city this morning en route to Enterprise where they will visit and transact business for a week or more.

Mrs. Walter Stringham of Imbler, was in the city yesterday to meet the traveling salesman for Fleishner Mayer & Co., of whom she bought her fall supply of goods.

Dr. C. A. Wagner, the chiropractor of Summerville, left this morning to resume his practice in that place. He states that things are moving in Summerville and that it will some day take on city airs.

C. E. Hutchinson, E. S. Forstrom, J. D. McPhee, J. S. Davis, J. W. Maharry, S. A. Dougherty, S. C. Mann, and H. Wicks, all of North Powder, were registered at the Sommer yesterday.

Claude McColloch, prominent in Oregon politics, whose home is in Portland, passed through the city last night on his way to Baker. He was met at the train by Nolan Skiff of the local land office.

Mrs. Ida McClure and daughter Miss Nellie, returned yesterday afternoon to their home in Baker after a pleasant visit at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Blood at Fruitdale, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Budge of this city.

Miss Alite Kerr of London, who has been visiting her brother Arthur A. Kerr, city manager for the Home telephone company, leaves tonight to complete a tour of the United States before returning to her home.

Tom Duncan, traveling salesman for the Wadhams grocery company, left this morning for Walla Walla, Milton and other cities on the Spokane branch of the O.-W. He will be out of the city a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Montgomery, of Baker, were in the city last Saturday night on business. Mr. Montgomery

This Space Will Contain Prices That Will Assist You to Reduce the HIGH COST OF LIVING

THIS IS THE STORE

THE GOLDEN RULE CO.

Quality the Same

Prices Less

is cashier of the First National bank at that place. Mrs. Montgomery proceeded to Portland and her husband returned to Baker.

Father Driscoll went to Baker this noon on business. He will return tonight.

Guy Norden, of Kamela, came down to the city on No. 17 to have his hand dressed, which was injured some weeks ago.

Jimmy Bannon, the candy salesman, well known in La Grande, and along the branch line, arrived this morning with samples of sweets, etc.

C. Ashby Dickson, an employee of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, is in the city the guest of Joachim and Miss Louise Durst.

Mrs. H. Akins of Wallawa, passed through the city this morning on her way to Union where she will be the guest of her nieces Mr. and Mrs. Bennett for a number of days.

James Miller, travelling passenger agent for the O.-W., was in the city last night and left today for branch line points where he will be engaged in business connected with the company for a number of days before returning.

Roscoe Doane, a druggist, who was formerly employed in local drug stores, but of late has been located at Salt Lake, is in the city visiting with friends while on his way to Forest Grove where he will visit with his mother.

Mrs. Sarah Shepherd of Pendleton, passed through the city this morning en route to Elgin where she will be the guest of her daughter Mrs. Amy Garret. On her return she will visit with her son Rufus Shepherd of this city.

Mrs. W. R. Jack and baby Veston, left for Imbler this morning to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ellen Sion, grandmother of Mrs. Jack. Mrs. Sion is one of the pioneers of this section of the country and died at the advanced age of 81 years, last Saturday night. Funeral today.

Mrs. W. J. Byrnes of Richfield, Ida., who spent several days in the city the guest of her sister, Miss Grace Murphy, left this morning for Portland where she will visit with her sister Anna Murphy, who is connected with the Catholic Women's League of that place.

Mrs. Fannie G. Sparks left this morning for Pendleton after stopping off in the city to visit with her sister, Mrs. J. M. McCall of La Grande. Mrs. Sparks is returning from Butte, Mont., whither she had been called on account of the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Mullinix. In Pendleton she will be the guest of her daughter Mrs. J. H. Dunham and will then proceed to Dayton, Wash., her home.

Henry Hass, one of the foremost cattle raisers of the Enterprise country, passed through La Grande this morning on his way to Pendleton and nearby points. He will be gone several days.

R. H. Crawford of this city, carpenter and contractor, returned yesterday from Portland where he spent a vacation of a month or more. Incidentally he laid in a large supply of lumber and other building materials and will erect several new residences this summer.

A Free Lecture on Economy. Breakfast comes first. Tell your grocer you want a sack of 10 lb La Grande made mush, 35c. If this was put up in 2 lb boxes it would cost you $1.00. Here's 65c. for you. Keep it.

Now comes lunch. Buy a 10 lb. sack of whole wheat flour or graham. Ask your doctor about these; he knows. Here's 65c. more. Put up in 10 lb sacks only. Then comes hot biscuits for dinner. Oh you Blue Stem flour. These goods are all made in La Grande. Any grocer has them. You all know tax time is now upon us, which is some higher than last year. And if you follow these instructions just take them from your taxes and call it your rebate. 3-14-2t

JOE WOODS CANDIDATE.

Well Known Stage Driver of Union County Enters Political Race.

Joe Woods, stage driver, liveryman and farmer and well known citizen of Union county today became an active and bona fide candidate for the democratic nomination to the office of sheriff. He filed his candidacy this afternoon.

Attention, Masons.

There will be a special meeting tomorrow, Tuesday, March 17th, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of Brother Fred Taylor. Members will please attend and visiting brothers are invited. C. W. Ioyes, W. M. 3-16-1t

New Lozier Comes.

N. K. West is the owner of a five passenger Lozier, 60 horse power, six cylinder touring car, purchased through the La Grande Garage. The car was unloaded this morning and is the first of its kind to enter this valley. The cost is $3250 f. o. b. the factory.

Read the advertisements too.

EAT WHEATLETS

THE BREAKFAST FOOD THAT MAKES YOU HAPPY ALL DAY

ASK YOUR GROCER

--The Ladies' Show-room--

1212 Adams Ave., next to Hill's Drug store, upstairs.
Phone Black 3261.

Before you buy your Easter Suit, Coat or Skirt
Visit our Ready-to-Wear Show Room.
If you want a Suit or Coat made to the present fashion bring it and we will remodel it for you.
LADIES' TAILORING AND DRESSMAKING.

---Jones and Rabone---

T. M. Shannon Harness Shop

a first class line of Dependable Harness and all Sundries
REPAIR WORK THAT HAS OUR SATIS-FACTION GUARANTEE
Adams Avenue

ICE CREAM

Johnson's Candy, Club Cream.

THE CLUB

Cigars, Tobaccos and Pipes
Bowling Billiards

The Liquor Habit Cured

We guarantee to cure you of the liquor habit or money refunded.

The Mc Cormick Institute

1508 Fourth St. La Grande, Ore.