ORANGE DAY ON THE 21ST

O.-W. DINING CARS TO CATER TO ORANGES.

Grocers Throughout the State, and the People, Appealed to.

Salmon is not alone to be honored by a day of special "worship" in Oregon, for oranges are to be king for a day. On March 21, all dining cars running through Oregon will offer special orange menus and cater to oranges, much the same as they do on Salmon day.

Not only will the O.-W. and other railroads in Oregon appeal to a day for the orange, but local grocers are asked to, and no doubt will make special displays for oranges on the 21st.
Oregonians are urged to eat oranges on that day to a greater number than ordinarily.

DARING BASEBALL PLAY.

Three Stolen Bases and a Run on a Scratch Infield Hit.

"The greatest baseball play I ever saw," says a writer in the American Magazine, "occurred in a game between the Philadelphia Athletics and the Detroit Tigers in Shibe park, Philadelphia, June, 1912.

"Ty Cobb, his first time up, hit a nasty grounder toward the first base.
The ball had a deceptive bound and Stuffy McInnes and some trouble reaching for it and keeping hold of the ball when he got it. But he managed to scramble over and touch first just as Ty raced over the bag. Connie Mack's loyal rooters declared the "Georgia Peach" out by a mile, but the umpire had ideas of his own and Ty was rested safely on the initial sack.

"The unexpected usually happens when this star swatman is running bases, and on this occasion he did not disappoint his admirers. After the pitcher had thrown the ball Ty, having a fairly good lead, decided to amble along down to second, figuring, no doubt, that Lapp (the Athletic catcher) would be taken off his guard and throw wild. To try for second after a catcher of Lapp's ability has the ball requires nerve of a high order. He is usually there with the perfect peg, but the sight of Cobb jogging along was too much for him and he heaved the ball into center field.
Cobb saw Barry crouched in front of the base waiting as if to receive the ball, so, gathering speed, he made one of his bent leg slides and landed behind the bag. Then seeing that the ball had gone to center field, he started for third base at top speed. Some one, I think it was Collins, made a beautiful throw to 'Home Run' Baker, who stabbed Cobb with the ball as that well known gentleman was in the act of sliding head first for the third base of rest.

"The crowd groaned when the umpire motioned Cobb safe at third.
While admiring his nifty exhibition the fans really wanted the dangerous fellow disposed of, and he had reached third by the closest kind of a margin.

"Ty slapped the dust from his toes and, as usual, ran several feet up the path toward home each time the pitcher started to wind up. The batter had now gathered two strikes, and with the next wind up Cobb raced for the plate at full speed, sliding with great force against Lapp, who was waiting for him with the ball. But the throw had been a little too high, and the catcher was taken off his feet before he could touch the daring base runner.
"Cobb therefore stole three bases after having reached first by a lucky scratch hit and made the first run of the game before the next batter up had hit the ball."

Classes in Russia.

There is no upper middle class in Russia. A family is either of the pen-santry—although this term has now a very wide inclusion—or of the aristocracy. And at court no one has precedence according to inherited rank, only according to official position in the government.

MANY ACTIVE IN COLLEGE

LA GRANDE DELEGATION AT "U" PROMINENT.

Various School Activities Interest La Grande Students.

University of Oregon, Eugene, March 19.—(Special.)—Russell Rasstone, a freshman in the University of Oregon and a graduate of the La Grande high school, is goal-keeper on the University of Oregon soccer team.
This is the first year that soccer has been played at the University and indications are that next year will be an official intercollegiate game. This year Oregon played two tie games with Columbia University where soccer has been played for several years.

Henry Heidenreich of La Grande, a junior in the University of Oregon, is out again this year for the track team; he is working mainly with the discus, shot-put and javelin, being in charge of all the weight men.

Milton Stoddard, of La Grande, a freshman in the University of Oregon, is a member of the freshman debating team. He also made the dramatic club and is one of the artists for the Oregon, the university year book.

Ray Williams, a graduate of La Grande high school, and a senior in the University of Oregon, is the house manager of a recently organized local fraternity, Iota Chi. Mr. Williams was prominent this year on the glee club.

Merlin Batley, a sophomore in the University, was on the glee club this year as singer and stunt man.

Gene Good, a junior, is to be tried April first by a mock court of his class on the charge of gross neglect of his duties as sergeant-at-arms of his class.

Statistics compiled by the secretary of the University Y. M. C. A. show that sixty percent of the men students at the University of Oregon are working their own way either wholly or in part, and most of these men are members of fraternities.

Over forty students had to leave the University of Oregon as a result of their failure in the mid-year examinations. The faculty stood firm in refusing to reinstate the "flunkers" except in a few cases where the students presented sufficient cause.
