HOME TALENT SHOW STAGED

AMATEURS OF COVE WILL PERFORM BEHIND LIGHTS.

Personal Mention and News Items from Cove and District.

Cove, March 23.—(Special.)—The Cove Dramatic club will give their first play next Friday evening. It is entitled "The Finger of Scorn," and is a melodrama. This club is an association just formed this spring, although most of the members have appeared several times before in home talent plays.

The high school will present their play that they have been practicing for several weeks, in the near future. This is a college life comedy.

John Dean returned from Chicago Friday afternoon. He said that it was snowing when he left there. After all Oregon is the only place, and the Grande Ronde valley is the favored place in Oregon.

Wilhelmina Newcombe returned Friday from Cricket Flat where she has been teaching school the past winter.

Harry Weimer has resumed his auto truck service between here and La Grande.

The parents and teachers of the Cove public schools will meet next Friday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a Parent-Teachers' association. Mrs. Ivanhoe will meet with them.

The senior class members have ordered their class pins.

Bert Benton has returned to Cove after an extended visit to Eastern and Southern states. Still there is no place like the Cove, no place where the prospect is brighter.

Ernest Forsstrom of North Powder, made a business trip to our little city this week.

The Methodist ladies aid held their apron social at the Maccabee hall Friday afternoon and evening. They also sold homemade candies and cake and gave a short program which was enjoyed by all.

Al. Daniel and Roy Lay bought a new Ford car this week and they may be seen enjoying it at all times of the day. Mr. Duffy also bought one of the same make.

Howard Van Gordan of La Grande, is visiting at the home of his brother, Herbert Van Gordan.

Mrs. Downey of Union, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Mae Kelley.

Dr. McGawn and wife of Vancouver, have settled in Cove. They are living in Robert French's home.

The surprising thing in politics is that Cove has no candidate for any office, either county or state. Therefore, it is so quiet politically that Hugh McCall is becoming nervous.

H. E. Blevins of Milton, is in Cove this week looking into business matters.

Marvin McDaniel has sold his home to Alfred Daniel, Sr., for the consideration of $1500.

Mrs. Herman Tripper and daughter Denise, of Walla Walla, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert French. They report Mr. J. E. Tripper who is in Walla Walla, now to be getting along first rate.

Practical People.

A tourist found himself in a German village far out of the beaten track of his kind. There was, however, a linden tree in the village square. The tree was plastered over with advertisements like this: "Get Your House Furnishings at Ober's." "Engagement Rings - a Marvelous Selection - at Liebling's, the Watchmaker and Jeweler." "Kitchen Utensils at Muller's." "Just the Place For Your Wedding Breakfast—the Little Dining Room in the Post Hotel," and so forth. The stranger read the advertisements attentively.

"And why," asked he, turning to a villager who stood by, "why is this linden used as a billboard?"

"Simplest thing in the world," replied the villager. "All the courting couples come here and cut their names in the bark of this tree. There right before them are the addresses of the very people they'll need to set 'em up in housekeeping once they decide to get married."—New York Post.

Hands That Make Beauty.

The father of Saint Gaudens, the sculptor, was a bootmaker and put the same enthusiasm into making a good boot that his son put into modeling statues. Millions are spent on paintings and sculptures, but just as many millions are spent on other productions of the human hand and brain. They may not be classed as works of art, yet are they the beautiful handicraft of men and women. The products of the cabinet makers of the eighteenth century, the weaving of the Hindu men and women since the days of the Arabian Nights, the laces and tapestries worked by peasant girls, nuns or queens, the creations of the potter, the bronzesmith, the ironmonger, the silversmith, the goldsmith, the printer and the bookbinder were wrought by joyful workers, and millionaires compete with kings to possess them.—Boston Globe.

Profane Dancing.

Harriet Beecher Stowe records that in her girlhood she and her friends used to dance a jig entitled "Go to the Devil and Shake Yourself." This dance must have enjoyed a long spell of popularity. The first Duke of Buckingham and Chandos was indignant when, deigning to attend an assembly ball at Ainsford, his request for a dance, addressed to a local rector's wife, met with the reply, "Go to the Devil and Shake Yourself!" He complained to the rector, and it then transpired that the lady, who was somewhat deaf, thought his grace had asked her what dance was then being played. This incident occurred in 1765, and twenty years later Crabbe, in his "Tales," advertised on a bookseller for stocking the music of a dance with such a profane title.—Manchester Courier.

DON'T COUGH YOURSELF INTO A SERIOUS CONDITION.

To neglect a cough or cold is always a hazardous act. A cold so often goes down on the lungs, and the cough that follows may easily be a symptom of bronchitis, pleurisy, or even pneumonia. Coughing frequently follows attacks of la grippe, and if severe and persistent, is a tax on the system that weakens the vital resistance. Foley's Honey and Tar compound is an effective medicine for coughs and colds, is a perfect demulcent that may be relied upon for quick relief. A man named A. R. Ellison, Taylor, Wis., writes: "I make a point of recommending Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to all those needing a certain and safe cure from coughs and colds." For sale at Hill's Drug Store.—Adv.
