PORKLOND STOMACH VICTIM FINDS RELIEF FROM EVERY FIRST DOSE

H. C. Scammon Gets Quick Results From Use of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy.

H. C. Scammon of 209 Sherman street, Portland, was a victim of stomach troubles. He tried many treatments with but little promise of successful results.

At last he tried Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and got quick relief. In ordering the remedy after taking the first dose he wrote:

"I took the sample treatment and will say it helped me more than anything else I have ever tried and I want the full treatment immediately. I have had several persons send for the treatment already."

The quickness with which it proved itself to Mr. Scammon is one of the great merits of the remedy. The first dose proves—no long treatment. It is known everywhere. Thousands have tried the remedy and now praise it.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid accretions and removes poisonous matter. It brings swift relief to sufferers from ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. Many say that it has saved them from dangerous operations and many declare that it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitators, so be cautious. Be sure it's MAYR'S. Go to Hill's drug store and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing among people they know—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you the wonderful effects.—Adv.

HYGIENE NOT FOR SCHOOLS

brought to the attention of our college boys. The horrors of venereal disease were laid bare in lecture and pamphlet. Nothing was hid. A marked improvement in morals has not been noted. As it appears to me, not only will the detailed teaching of sex hygiene prove ineffective to the very noble purpose in view, but it will even thwart that purpose.

"Children of ten or twelve or fifteen years and youths of eighteen and nineteen years are untrained and to a large extent undisciplined. The imagination is flighty and irresponsible and extremely susceptible to sensuous images. These images impress themselves on the phantasy, and notably influence the actions and often the whole life of the youth.

"Two of the great protections of our children are modesty (reserve, if you will), and shame; not prudery mark you, but healthy and healthful shame. Both are snuffed at as an outgrowth and upgrowth of dogma and superstition. They are neither one nor the other. They are an instinct of nature. This is true especially of the latter, which is seen in children before they reach the age of reason. Modesty and shame, then, are natural protectors of chastity. But the public and frequent discussion of sex details will destroy both. Familiarity will breed carelessness. The lesson of the class will become the topic of conversation. Reserve will go. Shame will disappear. Sin will follow. Thus your good intentions will be frustrated.

"Chastity is a tower. Deep down in the soul must be placed foundations for its support. Such foundations are self-control, self-sacrifice, obedience to conscience and external authority, modesty, love of purity, respect for self and others, high reverence for motherhood, and all the traits which combine to make a sweet noble, strong character. Elemental character training is the first important step towards purity. Sex instruction will not give character—if for no other reason, because it is not deep and comprehensive enough.

"If the movement would be successful, it must first concern itself with the state of affairs. It must reach down to the very elements of character. It must acquaint the child with the things of the spirit, and then teach him to love the things of the spirit. A child is naturally moral. Even the new experiences of the age of puberty are accompanied by strong moral impulses. As a consequence the task of forming his soul is not supremely difficult. Failure in this matter does not come from the difficulty of the task, but from neglect of the task. A boy properly managed is as willing to care for the soul as the body. His delight over his growing muscle is often exceeded by the joy over his growing strength of character. Athleticism of the spirit can be made as congenial to him as athleticism of the body. But alas, his instructors are often more concerned with the latter than the former. Mutatis mutandis, all this is also true of the girl.

"Life on the highest plane is impossible without God and religion. And chastity belongs to life on the highest plane. The conclusion is Solomon's; Chastity is a gift of God. And if you dislike Solomon, the conviction is Plato's and the converted Carlyle's and others who have fought the battle of life. This is not mere rhetoric."

EVERY WIFE'S DUTY

Watch Husband's Hair. If Thin Or Full of Dandruff Insist On His Using Parisian Sage.

Men give but little thought to the care of the hair. Not until the first bald spot appears do they really take notice. If your husband's hair is getting thin; if he has dandruff or itching scalp, take immediate action—do not let him become a bald head.

Get from any drug or toilet counter a 50 cent bottle of Parisian Sage. The first application stops itching head and removes dandruff—the great hair destroyer. A little Parisian Sage rubbed well into the scalp for a few nights will work wonders. When the hair stops falling and the new growth appears a frequent use of this invigorating tonic is all that is needed to make the hair perfectly healthy, thick and beautiful.

Surely try Parisian Sage. Newlin Drug Co., sells it with an agreement to refund your money if not satisfied. It's a delightful hair tonic for men and women.—Adv.

The Three Ages of Crims.

"There are three ages of criminals," said Lecoq, the detective.

"The first age, from seventeen to thirty, is the daring and desperate one. Highway robbery, bludgeonings and holdups, murder for a few dollars—this is the worst age, a cruel, wicked and supremely foolish age.

"The second age, from thirty to forty-five, is the cautious middle one. Burglaries that are safe and easy, forgery, counterfeiting—in a word, crimes demanding neither violence nor pluck—that is the second age.

"The third age, from forty-five to seventy, is the executive one. The criminal is now a gang leader. He does not act himself, but he plans and commands crimes of magnitude, train robberies, bank robberies, kidnappings and the like."—New York Tribune.

Why She Believed.

"What sort of a chap is that fellow that has been calling upon you?"

"He's the luckiest fellow in the world."

"How do you know?"

"He told me so."

"And do you believe all he tells you?"

"I believe that, for he told me it just after I had promised to become his wife."—Houston Post.

How They Manage.

"I'd like to know how you and your wife get along so well together."

"I'll tell you. Whenever ma decides that one of the children needs punishing I don't interfere, and when I decide to correct one of the youngsters she does the same for me."—Detroit Free Press.

Opened by Mistake.

Absentmindedly the young woman yawned.

"Pardon me," she said. "I didn't mean to do that."

"I see," responded Mr. Lingerlong—"opened by mistake."—Chicago Tribune.

Small Temptations.

As swarms of noxious insects are less easily mastered than raging beasts, so is the victory over small temptations greater than that over heavy trials.

No Exchange.

"I see you brought back the same umbrella you took to the banquet."

"Yes; I didn't see anything better."—Kansas City Journal.
