SMITH STAYS WITH UNION

REPORTED SUPERINTENDENT IS RE-ELECTED.

Fire Destroys Valuable Home and Furnishings Near Union.

Union, April 9.—(Special)—The school board of district No. 5 met in session last Monday and hired the teachers for the coming year. It is reported that Superintendent Smith and all the teachers of the high school faculty will be retained for the coming year. Also the grade teachers that wish their places for the coming year will be kept. There was some opposition to this program but it was carried out.

Fire destroyed the Rohrig house on his farm west of town. George Baxter who lived on the place lost all his household goods. The loss is estimated at $1,000 while the insurance is $300. This is the second time that fire has visited Mr. Rohrig as he lost a large stack of hay a short time ago by the same agency.

J. W. Baxter has completed his new house which he began last autumn. He has done most of the work himself and has most of the modern improvements. It is needless to say that he is very proud of it.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Davis on April 1st, a girl.

Born on April 1st to Mr. and Mrs. Alva Brassfield a girl. The little one only lived a few minutes and was buried in the Union cemetery on April 2nd.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Mecklenburg of Telocaset on April 3rd, a girl.

Rev. Ward MacHenry of Baker held services at the Presbyterian church last Friday night to a large audience. The church wants a pastor and Rev.

MacHenry is trying to help them get a man. The sentiment seems to be in favor of a young man.

Eddie Jacobs had the misfortune to run into a pile of rocks while over to La Grande recently and found out that they were harder than his auto and in so doing damaged the machine a great deal. It was after dark and the light went out on him with the mishap resulting. While his machine was laid up for repairs he was running the Kelly machine and ran into a telegraph pole and broke the machine up badly. The autos seem to have a hoodoo for him.

Erma Holmes and Francis Gilman were married last week in La Grande. Their many friends wish them every success in their married life.

Politicians of all kinds and sorts keep coming to town every day. My what good people we all are until after election and then we are forgotten until the next time. The ladies have to be reckoned with this time and that makes it harder than ever for poor candidates.

Mrs. C. W. Wright and children returned this week from California. They have been gone for several months on account of little Gordon's health. He is slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Stewart and son Milo have returned from El Paso, Texas, where they have spent several weeks. They were glad to get home again.
