

Society

Society has had an extremely quiet week—just as it should have. It is meet and fitting that at least one week of the year finds society subservient to the church, and thus it has been in a very marked manner this week. Lenten has been quiet socially but especially so the past week or two. Monday it breaks out a fresh after its restive period with the Knights of Columbus ball, and innumerable events are to be given in the immediate future.

All the world loves a baby. And it certainly should be so. After all, what is there in life but the little ones? The love for a baby was again exhibited in a pronounced form in La Grande one day this week when several members of the Neighborhood club met and spent the entire afternoon making clothes for a little tot whom one of La Grande's good families adopted from the baby home at Portland. That institution does not provide many clothes and when the little Miss arrived in La Grande to become a citizen her wardrobe was very light.

The splendid women of the Neighborhood club surprised the mother with their services to augment the little one's wardrobe and while the work was in progress it was plain that every lady rejoiced in her undertaking. Mrs. Vincent Palmer, Mrs. Mac Wood, Mrs. Frank Phy, Mrs. George Cochran, Mrs. J. T. Richardson, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. J. K.

Wright and Mrs. L. B. Moe were the ladies who made the little tot happy and comfortable.

At 5:30 p. m., last night Geo. A. Neese, manager of the Singer Sewing Machine company, with headquarters in Pendleton, and Miss Ruth Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Adams of Elgin were united in marriage by Rev. E. B. Fyke of the Methodist church. The ceremony took place in the parlors of the Sommer Hotel and was witnessed by the parents of the bride and her sister, Miss Ella Adams of Elgin, Mr. Hatch, a local agent for the Singer company and other friends of the bride and groom.

After the knot was tied the party betook themselves to the Model Restaurant where a special dinner was served the invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Neese will make their home in Pendleton and their many friends both here and in Elgin will wish them a merry voyage on the sea of life.

On the 22nd of this month the ladies of the Altar society will give a social dance and card party in Zuber Hall. This will be a comfortable affair and they say there will be no wall flowers—for those who do not indulge in giddy whirl there will be card tables. A tasty luncheon will be served and is included in the good things which patrons will be entitled to through the price of admission. The proceeds of this affair will be donated to the building fund of the church and help defray some of the expenses of the beautiful structure which will be erected this summer. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Next Monday the Knights of Columbus will heave a sigh of relief after the long abstinence of frivolity and will inaugurate their first annual ball at Rex Auditorium. It is to be a big affair and fully six hundred invitations have been sent out to all their friends in the city. This will be the first party given by the Knights of Columbus in this city and for this reason all will endeavor to make this a worthy precedent for following years. The music is to be first class. Nothing need be said about the floor, which is perfect. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Emogene Russel, head of a local kindergarten school Friday morning was hostess to her pupils and to several special guests. The little folks romped about Honan Hall basement to their hearts content, playing games and hunting easter eggs. It was a gala day for those present and Miss Russel is a warm friend today of 19 little folks because of her little party for them.

Under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Graham, the Treble Clef, a musical club of 16 ladies' voices, will make its debut tomorrow morning in this city first at the Baptist church and later at the morning services at the Methodist church. This club represents much of the very best talent in the city, and its appearance will be anxiously awaited.

Mrs. E. C. Moore, formerly closely identified with both the Neighborhood club and the Tuesday Musical as chieftain of both at various times, is in La Grande visiting friends and transacting business. The Moore family now lives in Portland and Mrs. Moore is in La Grande for a few days attending to some business matters.

The proposed recital by Mrs. Brody of Portland, April 16 has been indefinitely postponed, the exact date to be announced by the Methodist choir, under whose auspices and arrangements she was to come.

The Kaffee Klatch resumes its post-lenten activities next Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ber-

FEW WOMEN REGISTERED.

nesday and Saturday is in the office of Jack Oliver, next door to the La Grande National bank at 7 p. m., for the purpose of facilitating registration and the numbers who have availed themselves of this convenience have made no appreciable impression on the total registrations. He states that the registrations at the county court house are almost nil. He comes to the down town office merely as a matter of convenience and to enable voters to go through the legal requirements to cast their ballots on election day with despatch. The following list of precincts with the number of registrations will show who is and who is not tardy in this respect:

It should be borne in mind that only Democrats, Republicans and Progressives will vote in the primaries. Independents and Socialists and Populists however will vote in the general election this fall. This should have nothing to do with registrations, because all voters this fall will have to be registered just the same as if they had voted in the primaries.

STRONG BILL AT ARCADE.

Amusement Billed for Entire Week is of Exceptional Character.

The Arcade has an unusually good program for the coming week. On Monday and Tuesday the distinguished dramatic favorite, John Barrymore, brother of Ethel Barrymore will appear in a moving picture drama entitled "An American Citizen." This picture drama is heralded as one of exceptional merit.

It is said the famous actor considers this his best production. He is a member of the famous players and is supported by an exceptionally good cast of characters.

La Grande is the only place in Oregon where the famous Player pictures are put on for 10 cents; other places are charging 15 and 25 cents. Besides this attraction every Monday and Tuesday, many Pantages attractions come to this theater. Tomorrow Barbara Tennant and O. A. C. Lund in "Adrift" will be on the bill. This is a strong drama of the Northwest and will please people of this section of the country.

Tomorrow Doris & Keane, two very clever people will make their initial appearance of a four-day stay at the ry the entertainers at the Andrews home.

An extremely interesting program is promised for next Tuesday when the Neighborhood meets. All the members are urged to be present.

The Bridge club met at the home of Mrs. J. J. Carr this week. Honors at cards went to Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp.

Arcade. On Thursday they will be followed by A Sister Team, two very clever comedienne, one dressed as a man. The entire week as billed ahead is going to be good and you won't make a mistake in coming here for amusement.—Adv.

Art Works Attract Many.

It is seldom that La Grande people have had an opportunity of seeing works of art displayed in a local window such as are now in the window of the Harris art store. The work is not amateurish by any means and the delicate tinting of famous photos is in itself well done. It shows more than ordinary talent and many a person would be glad to do so well.

The likeness of the Indian is particularly good, as is also that of the Spanish maid. The coloring of the madonnas is executed with skill and gives ordinary photography life and an appearance of freshness. The window is quite attractive with this display.

Give "Her" Lowney's for Easter

After all "sweets to the sweet" is best.

Fancy gee-gaws and pretty baubles take a back seat when a box of Lowney's puts in its appearance. Then too, these dainty confections convey a sentiment that is utterly lacking in what ever else you may send or give her.

Put up in different sizes of the most attractive packages.

Give us your order today. Lowney's always fresh. If you're out of the city we'll express it to you.
