

Society

Post-lenten society records a rapid gait, something near the normal pace of midwinter. True, no particularly big functions were witnessed other than the informal K. of C. dancing party, but innumerable events were enjoyed in various corners of the city. Card clubs are back in the glare of society calcium, and card clubs and sewing clubs alone take up much attention afternoons and evenings of each week.

On Easter Sunday last, Miss Belle Edwards, at the home of Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe entertained the teachers of the high school at Easter breakfast. There were three courses to this pretty and novel affair. Decorations and face cards were appropriate to eastertide and were charmingly placed. The following teachers besides Miss Edwards and Mrs. Ivanhoe were there: Misses Grace McMillan, Flora Koch, Stella Hunter, Sara Riddle, Minnie Holman, Lenore Buchanan, Esther Bonner, Jacqueline Noel, Janet Hershey and Janet Jones. After this pretty affair all of the teachers betook themselves to their respective churches for Easter Sunday services.

members who belonged a year ago were in town and able to be present.

Helen Curry, Alice Hill and Gene Good, students of the University of Oregon, who have been spending their Easter vacation at home, leave tonight to resume their studies at the university. The Willamette Valley is all right, but the old Grande Ronde looks good to them and they hate to leave, but duty calls and the poor students must hark to the call, even though it tears the heart strings to leave.

Mrs. Ella Moon was the recipient of a pleasant surprise party a few days ago when under the leadership of Mrs. G. C. Montgomery, she was surprised by several of her neighbors to celebrate her birthday anniversary. Those who attended the pleasant affair's surprise were: Mesdames Peach, Burnapp, Wilson, Clark, Montgomery, Holmes, Hasbrook, Carri and Roe.

For the first time since Lent commenced the Kaffee Klatch held its weekly party, last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Berry assisting. Honors at cards went to Mrs. Fred L. Meyers and to Frances Wilhelm. The afternoon division meets Friday with Mrs. Fred L. Meyers as hostess.

The Tillicums, a high school organization entertained Blanche Black's division of this friendly society of good natured people at a picnic supper at Riverside Park last night. About 40 persons including many of the faculty were present. Other affairs of the same kind are planned for the remainder of the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Francis arrived this noon from Portland where the matrimonial knot was tied during the week. They will soon leave for Sidney, Illinois, where they will make their home in the future. The community will lose two estimable young people but their local friends will wish them a full measure of success and matrimonial bliss in the Sucker state.

Mrs. Oscar Hopper goes to Great Falls, Montana tonight with her sister, Mrs. Bert Hallina, who has been here several days. She will remain until July first but will first attend and participate in a recital at Boise Monday night.
