Receiver Nolan Skiff of the local land office is back in his office this morning after a four day boiling out process at Hot Lake. He reports himself much restored. During his stay there he met many persons from all sections of the state and the northwest and stated his broader vision of things political and otherwise has been of immense value to him.

PERSONALS

Louis Minnis, Blanche White and Earl Cautts, of Pendleton, were registered at the Foley yesterday.

Attorney F. S. Ivanhoe was an out-bound passenger this morning on the branch.

Mrs. Oakman, of La Grande, left today for Palmer Junction where she will select a ranch for which she made arrangements last Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Dunn, the chiropractor, of Wallowa, left for that city this morning to resume her work. She likewise practices in the town of Joseph.

J. F. Wellman, of Salem, passed through the city this morning on his way to Enterprise where he expects to purchase a ranch.

Wm. Spencer, superintendent of logging for the Palmer Lumber company left for Howard Creek in the interest of the company this morning.

Joe Keefer, who is in the employ of Joe Campbell at Elgin, left for that place this morning to resume his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Toohy, of this city, left last night for Taylorville, Illinois, where they will visit for some time. Mr. Toohy was bartender for Mr. Lottes.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bennett and children left this morning for Imbler from where they will go to Indian Creek to make their home on a ranch in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Baker, of Shelbyville, Illinois, passed through the county seat this morning on their way to Wallowa where they have bought a ranch and where they will make their home in the future.

Mrs. W. A. Merritt, of Elgin, and Mrs. C. E. Merritt, of the same city, are back from Marshalltown, Iowa, where they had been called on account of the serious illness and death of Mrs. Jessie Laird, daughter of Mrs. W. A. Merritt.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hansen of this city left this morning for Imbler where Mr. Hansen will work on the new brick school house in the capacity of brick layer. They will make Imbler their home as long as the work lasts there.

for a number of days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Browning returned home this morning.

C. W. Cleaver and J. W. Eshelman of Imbler, James L. Woodell of Summerville, Perry Blanchard of Union, Jno. McPhee, of North Powder, I. and G. F. Haller of Telocasset, were registered at the Savoy yesterday.

Mrs. Oscar Hopper and her sister, Mrs. Bert Hallinan, who has been visiting here in La Grande for some time, left this noon for Boise, where they will visit for a time and then go on to Great Falls, Montana, where Mrs. Hallinan lives. Mrs. Hopper will be gone several months.

W. A. Woodell, brother of Simon, Perry and Miles Woodell, of this section, arrived from Los Angeles last night and left for Summerville this morning where he will spend the summer on his ranch. He states these are somewhat backward in the south in a business way, but that prospects are good for the summer.

Mrs. Julius Roesch returned this noon from a two weeks trip to Portland, Walla Walla, Pendleton, Pilot Rock and other cities. During their stay in Portland they visited with their daughter Louise and their son Marcus who is attending Columbia University. In Pilot Rock, Mr. Roesch visited with his sister, Mrs. Mathews whom he had not seen in twenty five years. Mr. Roesch did not return this noon, having been detained with business matters. He will return tonight.

S. T. Cherry, brother of Jack Cherry, formerly of this city, passed through La Grande this morning on his way to Joseph where he will spend the summer. During this time he is going to purchase several cars of fine brood mares which he will ship back to Missouri. He states that animals from this section of the northwest are best adapted to the raising of the very best kind of mules, even the native Missouri mare being inferior to the stock from this mountainous section. Owing to the higher altitude, they have a greater lung capacity and this, he states, is the reason for the large growth attained by mules from Oregon mares.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and baby, Foster, arrived in La Grande from Union this noon to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Melville of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Decker who have been here from Seattle the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Charboneau and family, for some time, returned this morning. Mrs. Decker is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Charboneau.
