THE EXPOSURE OF THE WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

Spokane, Wash., April 11, 1914.
To Whom It May Concern:

"The Exposure of the White Slave Traffic" a photo play in five parts including a lecture by A. Augustus Burnell, opened at this theatre today and the house was not big enough to hold the crowds seeking to gain admission to see this highly moral and instructive picture, that was passed and approved by the City commissioners, Ministers, Rabbi Le Vine, Women's clubs and the Y. W. C. A. of this city.

From all indications the week of April 11 will be the banner one at the prices now in vogue.

I take pleasure in recommending this "reel" feature as a box office winner.
Yours truly,
Joseph Muller, Resident Manager.

In conjunction with the exhibition of the film, an instructive and interesting lecture on WHITE SLAVERY will be delivered by Augustus Burnell, a thoroughly sociological expert who has delved into the subject very thoroughly. He will tell of the conditions that exist at the present time and at the same time deliver a warning to the unsuspecting public regarding the methods pursued by the shrewd, tricky and suave vultures who thrive as a result of the WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC.
