DAVIS DONATES CORNER STONE

LOCAL TOMBSTONE MANUFACTURER MAKES GIFT.

Emblem Will Bear Historic Date—Rudd Gives Interview.

Many people are today stopping in front of the Y. M. C. A. office to view the corner-stone which is being exhibited there. Secretary Rudd, in commenting on it said, "I find that people want to know three things about this stone; who made it, what is the design on the Washington street face of the stone and when it is to be laid. It is a pleasure for me to announce that this stone is cut from native rock by a local stone cutter Mr. E. C. Davis who very generously presented the stone complete to the Y. M. C. A. The design on the side of the stone which will face Washington street represents the emblem of the Y. M. C. A. The Elm street face reads in plain English "Y. M. C. A. 1914". This means more than the average date for the Board of Directors have very wisely selected as their goal, "The Y. M. C. A. Built and Paid for in 1914." Mr. H. C. Grady, chairman of the committee having charge of the program for the laying of the corner stone will be able in a few days to announce the date of that ceremony. It will probably be on either Sunday May 17th or 24th.

"I suppose that some people get tired of hearing me talk money all of the time, so I will make just one simple statement and quit for this time; some delinquent subscribers must pay in their part of six or seven hundred dollars by the middle of this month in order to save interest to the Y. M. C. A."

Collegians to Learn Soldiering.

Washington, May 7.—Army camps for college students will open in four or five different sections of the country two months from today. The youths will find the camps a pleasant place to spend the vacation and cheap. The cost will be only $17 for five weeks of the regular army fare. Transportation and $7 for equipment will have to be paid by the men joining the camps, the objects of which are to give the collegians a short course in military training to prepare them for war. The War Department will furnish cots, blankets, tents, cooking outfits and all other articles necessary for camp life.

McAdoo-Wilson Wedding.

automobile drives and walks together and McAdoo was Miss Wilson's favored dancing partner.

True to the Wilson tradition that thirteen, the hoodoo number was their "good luck" numeral, the engagement of Miss Wilson and the Secretary was announced on March 13. That day was also Friday and friends of the Wilson family laughingly observed that an especially fortunate date had been selected for the announcement, from the Wilson standpoint.

An expert needlewoman herself, she did a lot of work in fixing the trousseau herself, aided by Miss Margaret Wilson. Mrs. Wilson, who suffered a nervous shock from a fall a month or more ago, has been too ill to assist. It was partly because of her indisposition that the private wedding was held. Miss Eleanor, it is understood had hoped to have a wedding with "all the fuss and feathers," as she was quoted as expressing it, of her sister, Mrs. Sayre.

Not a word was obtainable today as to the bridal trip. One report had it that the couple would take a brief European tour, as did Mr. and Mrs. Sayre, but this was discounted because Secretary McAdoo is just now an extremely busy man, and his presence in Washington is almost imperative, owing to the new currency law going into effect.
