PARK CROWDED DURING SUNDAY

MID-SUMMER RUSH ON TO CITY PARK YESTERDAY.

August Rush in May Seen at Riverside Yesterday Afternoon.

Hundreds of people—one thousand, one observer estimates—utilized the city park for recreation and rest yesterday. From early morning until evening when chilly winds came down the river, hundreds of children romped the sward and played on the paraphernalia for juvenile entertainment. Many families took lunches to the park and stayed all day, and in every respect the crowds resembled those that congregate there in the heat of the mid-summer season.

The green sward is particularly clean this year an effort to keep it so is being made. That a tremendous rush to pick up the most desirable camping places for chautauqua week will be on when the selections are due, is indicated from the interest taken in park facilities this early.

Whooping Cough.

"About a year ago my three boys had whooping cough and I found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the only one that would relieve their coughing and whooping spells. I continued this treatment and was surprised to find that it cured the disease in a very short time," writes Mrs. Archie Dalrymple, Srooksville, Ohio. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

AN APPEAL.

Ah, it is women who have given the costliest hostages to fortune! Out into the battle of life they have sent their best beloved with fearful odds against them. Oh, by the dangers they have dared, by the hours of patient watching over beds where helpless children lay, by the incense of ten thousand prayers wafted from their gentle lips to heaven, I charge you give them power to protect along life's treacherous highway those whom they have so loved!—Frances E. Willard.

A TRIBUTE.

John A. Logan is past all flattery. Shall we call him brave? Others have worn that crimson badge. Great men become types. The people single them out with the ready common sense which belongs to no man, but to all men. Logan is our great volunteer. So they have named him, and so will be known when we are forgotten. Whatever is heroic they can make classic. In calling him the great volunteer we have unwittingly done injustice to Logan. Ask those who served with him and they will answer. "Men whom Logan led never turned back." Only a comprehensive mind can take events as they come and mold them to its will as if they had been ordered in advance. * * * It was he who gave us the sweet observance of Memorial day. Only a poet could have thought of it; only a poet could have made it come true. It is, above all others, our best loved holiday, our festival of memory, love and beauty.—George R. Peck.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

Every vice makes its guilt the more conspicuous in proportion to the rank of the offender.—Juvenal.

If it were in my power I would be wiser, but a newly felt power carries me off in spite of myself. Love leads me one way, my understanding another. I see and approve the right and yet pursue the wrong.—Ovid.

Everything that thou reprovest in another thou must most carefully avoid in thyself.—Cicero.

No government is safe unless it be fortified by good will.—Nepos.

He preferred to be good rather than to seem so.—Sallust.

"TWIN" PEDESTAL TABLES are the Aristocrats of the Dining Room

Father—"TWIN" you shall have!

Son—"TWIN"?

Father—Yes; that is the name of Pedestal Extension Tables having two complete pedestals. You know we have in our house a "single" pedestal table which when closed always "gaps" or stands open at the bottom, and when extended the locks, bolts, nuts and unfinished surfaces on the inside of the pedestal are exposed.

New Bride—I have never known that there was such a difference in tables, and I now see that the two complete pedestals overcome all the unsightly parts of a "single" pedestal.

Son—I have seen tables with drop-legs at the ends of the top, but I can now see that "TWIN" Pedestals besides being more artistic are also more serviceable and reliable. "TWIN" we will have!

Clerk—I am glad you see the advantages of "TWIN." They are the only tables made that are absolutely perfect, closed or extended. If any of your friends contemplate buying a table, refer them to—
