

MARS WOULD COLLECT PAY

PRESENTS NORTH SECOND STREET CLAIMS.

Remonstrance to Sewer on North Side Presented Commission.

Contractor J. L. Mars who did the macadam work on North Second three or four years ago, is trying to collect his pay. He presented an itemized statement to the city commission last evening, asking for settlement. The face value of the improvement warrants is $11,640.03, and the interest amounts to about $3,000. The commissioners took the matter under advisement. Prolonged litigation brought by property owners on that street is responsible for the delay in liquidating improvement warrants.

President Wood, Commissioner Russell and City Attorney John Hodgins were in attendance at the session.

Remonstrances filed last night against proposed sewer construction on the North Side, were referred to the Friday night meeting when all interested are to meet.

Petitions for water mains on East Pennsylvania and on Division street, were allowed by resolution.

Bids presented by Adam Kolb for the construction of cement sidewalks on N. Street, were accepted and a contract resolution passed. He is to receive 16 cents per square foot for the cement.

City Manager Lafky's weekly report follows:

The police released three prisoners held over from last week. Arrested four, one fine of $5.00, one horse and colt in pound to be sold tomorrow afternoon. The new chief, Chas. B. Orsi has Ed Brady on the swing shift, and S. A. Weagle and J. R. Rhodes on the night shift. Other finer were collected directly by the Recorder.

The Recorder collected $12.50 fines, and $5.00 forfeiture. Of these one old case paid $5.00 and one $2.50 after serving half the time. The forfeiture was in the hands of the former chief of police. The Recorder collected $6.00 dog tax, drew $1,304.48 warrants for bills allowed, $1,000 on Imp. Dist. 57, and May salary for 11 days for former police force of $145.47.

The Street Superintendent spent $70.93 cleaning streets and $75.00 for grading. He graded 4 blocks at Walnut and Cedar, 3 on L. Ave., 3 on M. Ave., 2 on G., 2 on N., 3 on Oro Dell road near stock yards, and on S. Ave.

The Water Superintendent spent $37.30 reading and repairing meters, lowering pipe and looking after sewers.

The treasurer collected $324.40 for street improvements and interest, $25.00 license, and $551.60 for warrants. Paid $6,699.28 for warrants and interest thereon, and paid $150.00 interest on improvement bonds. Mailed 300 notices of street assessments and installments due on same.

The fire department had 3 fires, one a chimney fire at J. W. White's, one at Wm. Crandall's where the house burned, and one near 2nd and Main in a shed. broom was on fire. Some one is careless here. It has cost the city $25 or $30 for volunteer service, the chemicals and a couple of scares. If parents and others insist on being careless it might be well to make the ones to blame pay the costs and expense.
