LADD CANYON LIKES RAIN

HAILSTORM DOES NOT DAMAGE CROP.

School Closes Today With Excellent Program by Students.

Ladd Canyon, Ore., May 26.—(Special)—Farmers out this way feel very grateful for the heavy rains which have fallen here every day since Friday, following a hard hail storm on that day. The hail did no damage at all but the rains came just in time to save many a grain field.

Mr. Hunt, of La Grande, will close a very successful term of school here Friday and he and the scholars are preparing an excellent program which they will render at the school house on that evening. They expect all their parents and friends to come and hear them and it is very likely they will.

"Grandpa" Walker is feeling quite bad this week, following a slight attack of paralysis Friday morning. He is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dick Peebler, at which place he makes his home.

James Sterzer has two carpenters busy building a very neat looking cottage for him.

Frank Ingle is having a very nice barn erected on his farm.

Mrs. T. B. Johnson of Cove, was a visitor here last week with her daughter, Mrs. Adolph Peebler.

I dance eight or ten hours daily, and find that ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE keeps my feet cool and comfortable, takes the friction from the shoe, prevents corns and Sore, Aching feet. I recommend it to all my pupils."
