GIRL PRAISES PORTLAND ROSE

CLEVER LETTER RECEIVED BY PETER KUHN

Writer Sets Out Some of the Attributes of Portland, Oregon.

Indicating, not only clever powers of description by the young but something of the plans used by citizens of Portland to advertise the rose show, is a recent letter from a Portland niece of Peter Kuhn of this city. Mr. Kuhn received the following letter yesterday from a little Portland girl who has the making of a genuine booster:

Portland, Oregon, May 26, 1914.
My dear Grandpa: Many, many times it has occurred to me to write to you a descriptive letter relative to our great city of the Northwest. I speak of Portland as "our" city, because just the mere chance of living here makes it mine and yours and seems to spell welcome and once domiciled, within its beautiful gates one dreads the thought of ever leaving.

The location is superb, as it is situated in the wonderfully productive Willamette Valley on the banks of the Willamette River, and is tributary to all of the state of Oregon as well as a large portion of Washington, Idaho and California. We of Portland, hardly realize the possibilities and the realities of the great growing center in which we live.

It seems as if nature must have saved her best from everywhere to put into and embellish this one little spot into a glorious Eden.

Our climate is unsurpassed, being equable the year round. We have no storms, consisting of blizzards, tornadoes, thunder storms, wind storms, etc. The only disagreeable feature, if it can be called disagreeable is the abundance of rainfall we have. This feature is soon eliminated by the fact that we have very few real downpours, such as you experience in the East and middle west. It is the fine Oregon rain or mist that makes the crops and keeps the air so pure and clean. Portland's men and women are noted for the clarity of their complexions. This, no doubt is due to the soft, pervading atmosphere of Portland! When one becomes acclimated to the Rose City, he glories in the mist and in the beautiful mild sunshine.

Our sunshine is warm and enticing but never glaring. One can live out in our sunshine without frowning and scowling, causing wrinkles and ill temper. In fact the equability of the climate tends to calm and soothe, thereby making everyone lovable and kind.

The climate and soil is especially adaptable to the culture of all sorts of flowers. Although Portland has gained an enviable reputation throughout the country owing to the beauty and perfection of her roses, every other specie of flower and shrub can be as easily cultivated, can attain the same height of perfection in its certain class. Portland is also a very progressive city. Its buildings are second to none in the country and its commercial and manufacturing enterprises compete with those of the business world.

Once a year Portland has a rose festival. During this period, it would be impossible to find a more charming, gay, beautifully decorated city. Every citizen does his utmost to make the entire affair a success, and one is fascinated as he realizes that the rose is the queen of flowers, also Portland is the queen of picturesque cities.

Hoping you will find it convenient to visit with us during the coming rose carnival, I am
Sincerely yours
SELENA BARNELL.
