Resolution of Condolence.

Inasmuch as death has again visited our circle and removed from our midst our esteemed brother, Charles E. Golden, and by his death Crystal Rebekah Lodge, No. 50, I. O. O. F., his family and the community have suffered an irreparable loss, therefore, be it resolved that we tender to our beloved sister, Mattie Golden, and her family our sincere sympathy in this their hour of bereavement. God's blessing be upon them and give them strength to bear their sorrow bravely. Be it further resolved that these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy be sent to the bereaved family, a copy be sent to the La Grande Evening Observer for publication, and that our Charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Get Rid of Your Rheumatism.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You can do it if you apply Chamberlain's Liniment. W. A. Lockhard, Homer City, N. Y., writes, "Last spring I suffered from rheumatism with terrible pains in my arms and shoulders. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and the first application relieved me. By using one bottle of it I was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.

JOCK OF HAZELDEAN.

"Why weep ye by the tide,
lady?"

Why weep ye by the tide?
I'll wed ye to my youngest son
And ye shall be his bride—
And ye shall be his bride, lady,
Sae comely to be seen."
But ay she loot the tears down
fa'
For Jock of Hazeldean.

"Now let this willful grief be done,
And dry that cheek so pale.
Young Frank is Earl of Essington
And Lord of Langley dale.
His step is first in peaceful ha',
His sword is battle keen."
But ay she loot the tears down
fa'
For Jock of Hazeldean.

.....
The kirk was decked at morning
tide,
The tapers glimmered fair,
The priest and bridegroom, wait
the bride
And kalgut and dame were there.
They sought her both by bower
and ha':
The lady was not seen.
She's o'er the border and awa'
Wi' Jock of Hazeldean.

Good News For Papa.

"Paw!"
"Well?"
"When I promise to marry him do you want him to come and ask your consent?"

"No, not my consent, but I would like to have him trot in and tell me the good news. I sort of feel like I needed cheering up."—Houston Post.

Suddenly Tired.

"Good gracious, what a sight you are! What have you been doing?"
"The barber had just lathered me when some one came in and told him that he had won the big prize in a lottery and he retired at once."—File Goodie Bette."
