

WOOL BUYERS ATTEND SALE

FORMAL SALE HELD IN ENTERPRISE TODAY.

Participants in Sale Will Be Principally Western Men.

Twelve wool buyers passed through the city this morning enroute to Enterprise where they expect to purchase the year's clip from the wool growers of Wallowa county. They are local buyers, hailing from Portland, Pendleton and other western points. Wool has been selling at good prices in spite of the reduction in tariff, and is now from two to three cents higher than last year.

Assistant General Freight Agent Stein of the O-W. company accompanied them. Some of the buyers present represent Eastern mills.

This is the first formal wool sale in Wallowa county in three or four years, and much interest is attached to it. The wool clip of Wallowa county is to that section what apples are to the Grande Ronde.

REX HALL GIVES SUMMER FUN

RECENT PROMINENT SOCIAL EVENTS WELL ATTENDED.

Manager Sherwood Keeps up Standard of Excellence in Large Hall.

Lovers of fun in summer are being well cared for by Manager Bert M. Sherwood, of Rex Hall, judging from the splendid success of the many events recently that have been held in the large hardwood floor auditorium.

The Serpentine dance of a week ago is still the subject of pleasant comment in the social world of La Grande, and its pretty effect still lingers in the minds of all who were present. This was but one of several events of great importance to the fun lovers. Last Saturday night the baseball boys held another of their pleasant dances in the Rex hall and the attendance was unusually large.

Every convenience for summer has been added to the popular hall and not a thing is left undone by Manager Sherwood to properly care for his large list of patrons. His personal supervision of detail is what has made the hall a success from the beginning, and he has never tired in his efforts. It has repeatedly said, "Sherry is never so happy as when he is doing something to make someone comfortable."

A slight change is made in prices of dances at the Rex. In other words dancing has been put on a meter system—you pay for the number of dances you partake of. With the 25 cent admission ticket goes five dance tickets. When you have danced five times each additional ticket costs five cents, or a ticket for the entire evening costs seventy-five cents.

The new plan is working well and seems to be popular with all who dance.

Josephine Walsh of Prescott, Washington, passed through the city this morning on their way to Elgin where they will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fine.

Ed Thomas, who severely sprained his ankle a week or so ago, is out again and attending to his duties. A walking cane has been pressed into service and Ed manages to get around with the help of this third limb.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Beldon were in the city last night from Los Angeles to visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Busick. They are on their way home to Sheldon, Iowa, where they own a large ranch.

Mrs. James Corbett and daughter, Mary Helen, left last night for Portland, where they will attend the graduation exercises of the 1914 class at St. Mary's academy, of which Margaret Corbett is a member. Miss Margaret is graduating in music and academic studies.

In about three weeks, according to word received from Superintendent Clanton, of the Oregon fish department, La Grande is to get her first carload of fish. The initial shipment is to be Eastern brook to be followed later by other species.
