LOCAL BREVITIES

Sunday evening, at the home of the bride was solemnized the marriage of one of La Grande's progressive young men, Frank Earl Millering to a very popular and estimable young woman, Miss Della Rose Kindred. They will take a short honeymoon trip to Wallowa Lake. On their return they will reside in La Grande. A large delegation of friends were present yesterday morning to give them a hearty send off and wish them congratulations.

Attorney H. E. Dixon has moved his office from rooms 4 and 5 to rooms 20 and 21 in the La Grande National bank building.

Call Van Buren's for taxi.

Build a House Which will Sell Readily

An attractive house will command a better price by several hundred dollars than the common kind, and it costs no more. Some very poor houses are built of the best lumber.

Good material does not make a good building unless understandingly used. A good builders price is very little in excess of the poorest and the satisfaction of having an attractive, convenient and well constructed house is well worth the difference.

PERSONALS

Mrs. McCoy, of Portland, is in the city visiting with friends and looking after her property interests.

L. Knapper of Joseph passed through the city this morning from Washington state where he has been on business for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Felkner left this morning for Joseph where they will purchase a farm and make their home in the future. They came here from Kansas.

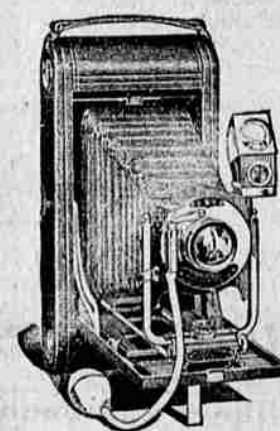

Mrs. Perry Robinson, sister to Miss Della Ralburn left last night for her home in Portland after a pleasant visit in La Grande.

B. D. Davis of Joseph returned home this morning after coming to La Grande, to meet his wife who returned last night from Prosser, Washington, where she has been visiting with home folks for some time.

John, alias "Shorty" Logue, left last night for Huntington where he will accept a position as switch engineer. Shorty says he is gone for good and will "blow" into La Grande only on rare occasions, and when the Knights of Columbus give initiations and other ceremonies.
