CONVICT DIES OF JOY.
Leavenworth, Kan., June 5.—“Davy” Truax, 82 years old, died of joy at his parole, his friends said—at the state prison here Wednesday. “Davy” had been in prison 25 years of a life sentence for killing an inmate of the Soldiers' home at Dodge City, Ia.

Truax believed he would be released some day, and had saved $150 that he might not go to a pauper's grave.

Tuesday the old man's faith was confirmed when he was notified that he had been paroled.

He sat in the prison office Wednesday waiting for the car which would take him away. When the car drew up friends turned to tell the veteran he must leave them. He sat motionless. The doctor said “Davy” had died of heart disease.

HORSE SHOW IS ON.

450 visitors. It was a fine demonstration of loyalty to a sister town which almost a year ago came to La Grande under weather conditions even more disagreeable than today's performance of the weather man.

Business men who closed their places of business, professional men who could spare the time, men and women and children of all walks of life made up the interesting gathering that went to the stock show to repay a courteous call, and be entertained by witnessing a display of horseflesh that no county in the state can emulate.

The band full strength, uniformed and disciplined lent color and impressiveness to the crowd and will help to inform the neighbor Union of La Grande's presence. They are going to make up what the valley needs, an esprit de corps, as it were and form what the name Union implies, a united body of boosters.

Build a House Which will Sell Readily

An attractive house will command a better price by several hundred dollars than the common kind, and it costs no more. Some very poor houses are built of the best lumber.

Good material does not make a good building unless understandingly used. A good builders price is very little in excess of the poorest and the satisfaction of having an attractive, convenient and well constructed house is well worth the difference.
