The committee which had the neighborhood club breakfast in charge feel very grateful to the young ladies who assisted with the serving. These club daughters added much to the enjoyment of the occasion, not only by dainty and efficient serving, but their appearance added to the beauty of the scene. Their costumes suggested the countries studied the past year, Mexico and South America.

They also feel grateful to Mr. Foley who came to the rescue in their difficulty in the carving. Several others rendered kindly assistance at that time and have the sincere thanks of the club.

The value of such an institution to La Grande and the surrounding country is almost beyond estimate. Although we have raised the large amount of money for the building, we feel there will still be need of more for furnishing the building when it is completed. The junior board is trying to help by raising money for the equipment and wish to announce a concert of home talent to be given in the Methodist church Tuesday evening, June 11. Much talent of the city has been secured for the program and it will be well handled. The proceeds go to the equipment fund of the Y. M. C. A."

THE GANGSTER.

I cannot agree with those who call gangsters the product of social conditions. What more can be done for them than has been? They will not obey their parents; they will not go to school; they cleave to the doctrine that the world owes them a living, which means, of course, without working. The gangster is almost invariably a drug user. He is a coward at heart. Give him cocaine, heroin, any of that group, and physical fear leaves him; he is ready for anything. Worst and most dangerous of all, he will maim or kill for money more readily even than he will through private hate. We talk of the "code" of the gangs, but it is only a code of revenge; no such thing as esprit de corps exists among them.—Judge Edward Swann, Supreme Court, New York.

Easily Made Salad Dressing.

Beat two eggs well, add half a pint of best vinegar, butter size of a hen's egg and half a teaspoonful of salt. Put this into a granite pan and set on stove. To prevent curdling stir rapidly and continue until it thickens like custard, then remove from stove, and while still hot stir in half a teaspoonful of made mustard thinned in as much vinegar, a sprinkling of pepper and, for those who like it, a teaspoonful of olive oil. Stir thoroughly until well mixed and set it in a cool place. Use the same as any dressing.—National Magazine.

Two Parts of a Sentence.

This story comes from the classroom on one of Uncle Sam's big battleships: Ensign Instructor in Grammar—What are the two principal parts of a sentence? Coal Passer (scratching his head)—Solitary confinement and bread and water.—New York Sun.

Needed Airing.

"What's the matter with you?" demanded Boren hotly. "I've got a right to air my opinions, haven't I?" "Oh, of course," replied Brightly. "They're so stale and musty they certainly need something of that sort."—Philadelphia Press.

Quite a Difference.

Ethel—Jack told me that he never loved any one before. Marie—Well, excuse me for saying so, dear, but he and I once were engaged. Ethel—Oh I didn't ask about engagements. I only asked how long you were engaged. Marie—Three years.

The Gusher.

"What's a gusher in an oil field?" "The man who carries the prospectus," replied he who had been stung.—Pittsburgh Allegheny.

The advantage of clothes made with this wool is, however, that you will not get a cold.

Philadelphia has not had the event for several years, and since the Quakers' course on the Schuylkill is one of the best in the country the chances for the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen will vote favorably for Philadelphia. Baltimore and Detroit also are after the date.

Harry Lewis Quits Ring.

Harry Besterman, better known to ring followers as Harry Lewis, who is slowly improving at his home from the injuries he received last October when he was knocked out in the fifth round of a bout with Joe Borrell, an Indianapolis middleweight, declared he will never again don a glove. He said that an injury he sustained in an auto mobile accident in London a few years ago, is the real cause of his condition. The former fighter made his reputation in the lightweight class and was at one time the sensation of Paris.

Pirate Holdouts.

The Pittsburgh Pirates have two holdouts on their hands. Claude Hendrick, the pitcher, says he will not play with the Pirates unless he is given an increase in salary. He demands $7,500 and says that if Dreyfuss refuses to give it to him he will jump to the Athletics. Max Carey is holding the Pirates up for a $8,000 salary. President Dreyfuss refuses to discuss the question, but it is thought that he will make some sort of compromise.
