ROOMS ARE WANTED.

All those having rooms available to house delegates to the Merchants' convention are requested to notify C. A. Small at once. This is imperative, announces the committee. Also such auto owners as have promised machines for that convention are urged to keep the dates in mind.

The Mullingers and the Hapsburgs. The Mullingers are one of those old Swiss families concerning whom my friend Dr. Curti, distinguished Swiss national historian and director of the Frankfurter Zeitung, recently told me the following amusing incident, writes a correspondent.

Years ago a Mullinger was one of the staff of the Swiss legation at Vienna. On being presented to the Emperor Francis Joseph he bluntly expressed his pleasure at making the acquaintance of his majesty, which pleasure, he added, was all the greater since "in times gone by the Hapsburgs were mere retainers of the Mullingers."

"In that case," the emperor is said to have replied, "I think you will admit that my family has got on better in the world than es weiter gebracht than yours."—London Chronicle.

Build a House Which will Sell Readily

An attractive house will command a better price by several hundred dollars than the common kind, and it costs no more. Some very poor houses are built of the best lumber.

Good material does not make a good building unless understandingly used. A good builders price is very little in excess of the poorest and the satisfaction of having an attractive, convenient and well constructed house is well worth the difference.
