Joe Waddell of Baker to Attempt Its Formation This Season.

Baker, June 17.—The Fair board of the Baker County Fair association this morning appointed Joseph Waddell to take charge of the racing program at the coming fair. Mr. Waddell is without doubt one of the best race horse men in the Pacific Northwest and he will at once proceed to get the race meet lined up so that Baker will have four days of speedy and brisk racing with a good card every day. He will try first to get Boise and La Grande lined up so that the horses can be brought here from La Grande, then spend the next week at Boise and the next at Salt Lake. Those present at the meeting of the board this morning were Ernest Welch, president; A. S. Shockley, treasurer; Walter Meacham, secretary; William Doby and Fred Cranston.
