Prizes for Bees.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Ore., June 22.—Oregon farmers could profitably keep more bees, the Oregon state Fair commission seems to think, and are offered very generous premiums for bee and honey exhibits at the state fair in Salem next fall. H. F. Wilson, entomologist at the Oregon Station, has been made superintendent of this exhibit. He says that now is the time to begin preparing the exhibit and that entries will be open until September 27. The entry fee is 10 per cent of the first premium in each lot. The following rules have been prepared by Professor Wilson to guide bee keepers in preparing their exhibit and provide for proper judging of the exhibits and awarding prizes.

Exhibits must be in place by six o'clock a. m., Monday, September 28. The judge will in no case give first premium to a second grade product even though there are only two exhibits.

All exhibits must have been produced in the apairy of the exhibitor during the year 1914 and premiums will be restricted to exhibits within the state of Oregon.

Honey must be pure nectar. Sugar and syrup honey are both barred, and judges should open up packages to satisfy themselves if this is the fact. Sections less than three-fourths full will also be barred.

The exhibits comprise specimens of comb honey, most attractive display of comb honey, specimens of extracted honey, most attractive display of extracted honey, specimens of bees wax, most attractive display of beeswax and honey vinegar in the classes for entry.

The bee exhibit will include a single comb nucleus of each of the four following kinds of bees: Italian bees, Golden Italian, Carniolan, Caucasian.

In addition a sweepstake prize of $15 will be given for the largest, best, most attractive and most interesting exhibit, all things considered.

For further information write Professor H. F. Wilson, Corvallis, or Mr. Frank Meredith, Salem.

GO TO THE RESCUE.

Don't Wait 'Till It's Too Late—Follow the Example of a La Grande Citizen

Rescue the aching back. If it keeps on aching, trouble may come.

Often it indicates kidney weakness. If you neglect the kidneys' warning. Look out for urinary disorders. This La Grande citizen will show you how to go to the rescue.

Mrs. M. Pike, 101 Greenwood St., La Grande, Ore., says: "One of our family had weak kidneys, and suffered from backache. He found it very hard to straighten after stooping, and when he did straighten, sharp twinges darted through his back. A friend advised him to try Doan's Kidney Pills and after using them a short time, he was greatly relieved. I publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills some time ago, and am still enthusiastic in their praise. We still use Doan's Kidney Pills with good results."

Price 50c, t all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Pike had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

For an Impaired Appetite.
