"NOTICE TO THE TRADE"

LADIES--

They're just out—"American Lady Front-Lace Corsets," and they're out right, absolutely. We could have shown Front-Lace Corsets at popular prices long ago, but we wished to put out Front-Lace models that would not only go on the shelves, but that would move off the shelves with rapidity. Not until now have we felt that the Front-Lace principle, as applied to popular priced Front-Lace Corsets, was sufficiently developed to warrant our offering a line.

It has taken time—and money—and pains—and a great deal of experimenting to perfect this principle, as applied to popular priced goods, but now we are confident American Lady Front-Lace Corsets represent phenomenal values in style, quality and fit. We want to prove this to you. Compare American Lady Front-Lace Corsets with those of other makes. Compare especially the fitting qualities of American Lady Front-Lace Corsets with those of other makes. More than all else Front-Lace Corsets must be perfection in fitting. American Lady Front-Lace Corsets DO fit.

We offer three values in American Lady Front-Lace Corsets: at .....$1.75, $2.25, and $3.50

Complimenting the Apostles.

A vicar in an English country parish was once puzzled when at a baptism the sponsor gave the name "Acts." "Acts!" asked the vicar. "What do you mean?" He thereupon asked the clerk to spell it. He did—A C T S. So Acts was the babe, and will continue to be in this life. Afterward, in the vestry, the vicar asked the good woman what made her choose such a name. "Why, sir," she replied, "we be religious people. We've got four of en already, and they be cal'd Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, and so my husband thought we'd compliment the apostles a bit."—From "Anecdotes of Pulpit and Parish."

Irish Humor.

Hugh O'Donnell is a story teller and a humorist. The principal charm of an "O'Donnellog," in fact, consists of the running fires of stories.

He told, the other night, of the Irishman who stood before the grave of Parnell, on which was inscribed the epitaph "I still live." "Och, begorry," exclaimed Pat, "if I were dead I'd own up to it."

Even the little children in Ireland, according to O'Donnell, have the true Irish sense of humor. He was standing before Nelson's statue, he said, when he asked a youngster, "Was Nelson really Irish?"

"That he was," replied the child. "That's why he is what he was."—Pittsburgh Chronicle.

She Knew Not the Hoosiers.

Miss Tompkins believed in speaking correctly. The boundaries of Boston did not contain all who were jealous of the purity of the mother tongue. Not from her should the makers of dialect stories obtain their material.

When she heard some friends discuss Edward Eggleston's best known novel she resolved to obtain a copy. She was quite sure she knew the title, although of course she would not slur her words the way some careless people did.

So she asked the salesman at the book store:

"Have you a book by Edward Eggleston, entitled 'Who Is Your Schoolmaster?'"—Youth's Companion.

BUTTER OUTPUT BIG.

Mrs. G. G. Puckett Averages 84 Pounds of Butter Each Week.

Recently the Observer mentioned that Mrs. G. G. Puckett who lives in the valley, made an average output of butter of 40 pounds per week. That figure is less than half enough—the correct average is 84 pounds a week. This average runs over a long period, and does not include the butter consumed in the Puckett home, either.

Spend July fourth in a sane, safe and comfortable manner by taking a loaded lunch basket to the park and listen to a good program, eat your dinner, hear the band play, and go home at night in a happy mood.

Chorus girls have formed a union. They should demand more clothes in the second act.

Invite your friends from afar to spend a week with you, and then take them to the park during chautauqua.

Baking Powder Biscuits

Light as a Feather

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

Baking Powder Biscuits made by this recipe are so far ahead of ordinary baking powder biscuits that, if once tried, you will never use any other recipe. Try it the next time you run short of bread. Save this recipe. 29

K C Baking Powder Biscuits

Three cups flour; ¼ to ½ cup shortening; 3 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; about 1 cup milk or water; 1 teaspoonful salt.

Sift three times, the flour, salt and baking powder. Work into the flour the shortening, using lard or butter for shortening. Then mix to a very soft dough with the milk. The softer the biscuit enters the oven, the lighter it comes out. Never knead baking powder biscuits; press the dough into shape and roll lightly. Cut in small shapes and bake on a sheet or very shallow pan in a hot oven. In placing biscuits in the pans place well apart, not allowing edges to touch. Small biscuits are better than large ones. Large biscuits do not have the proper amount of time to raise and bake.

Have you seen the new K C Cook's Book? Brimful of appetizing recipes that simply must be successful every time if the few simple directions are carefully followed. You would gladly pay 50 cents for this valuable book, yet we send it absolutely free upon receipt of the colored certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder. JAQUES MFG. CO., Chicago. Small cans do not have Cook's Book certificates.
