RIFLE BULLET SHATTERS LEG

SMITH'S MOUNTAIN BOY SUFFERS INJURY.

Personal News and Happenings At Mountain Top Settlement.

Minam, Ore., July 3.—(Special.)—What might have easily been a fatal accident occurred Thursday at the Scott Bros. sawmill on Smith's Mountain, when Gerald Herring, the 12-year-old son of George Herring shot himself through the leg while handling a 22-caliber rifle, the ball passing through the leg just below the knee, but as no bones were broken the wound is causing but little trouble and the boy will soon be about again.

Lester Victor, an old time resident of Smith Mountain, arrived at Minam Thursday and expects to visit for some time with relatives and old-time friends. Mr. Victor went to Wyoming three years ago where he has since held the position of foreman of a large sheep ranch. As he passed through La Grande he stopped over several days to visit an old friend, Geo. Campbell, a trainman of that place.

Bernard Wise and family have just moved into their new house, which they erected last week on the 80-acre tract of land he bought of Will Dickson last spring.
