North Powder Has Fire.

Early Tuesday morning a fire was discovered in the harness shop of Rex Smith on Second street. The blaze was discovered by Wm. Henderson, and it is believed was caused by a defective flue. Late the evening before some packing stuff was burned in the stove, and it is thought the inflammable stuff set fire to the soot in the chimney. In no other way can the blaze be accounted for. Mr. Smith had only just moved in and the loss to stock is considerable, most of the damage to the leather goods being from the chemicals used by the engine.—North Powder News.

A Double Wedding.

Four of North Powder's well known young people surprised their friends by going to La Grande and having a double wedding. Albert Hutchinson, and Miss Eva Wilson and Mart's Pierce and Miss Letha Atteberry are the contracting parties.

The young people motored to La Grande in the morning were married at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. E. B. Fyke and returned in the afternoon. They will make their homes here, and their many friends wish them all happiness in their married lives.—North Powder News.

EAGLES HAVE A BIG REUNION

THOUSANDS ATTEND PARK FESTIVITIES.

Speaking and Play Make up Program for Natal Day.

The annual Eagles' reunion Friday, Saturday and Sunday was a great success in every way. Thousands of people were on the grounds at Eagle park during the three days. Saturday a patriotic program consisting of speeches and music was supplied the guests and each day there was dancing in the pavillion. Informal amusements, games and pastimes permitted the guests to make merry during the three days and nights. The crowds each day ran into the thousands, the visitors going and coming as moods prompted them. Admission was free. Jerry P. Rusk was the principal speaker of the day on the fourth, delivering an interesting, instructive and patriotic speech to the Eagles and their friends.

Angus Steward read the declaration of independence and Mrs. Stillwell of Fruitdale read a paper on "Our Nation's Flag." Both of these were patriotically received. A Kangaroo court and Eagles' jail furnished bushels of fun.
