Cove News Items.

Cove, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special).—Mt. Fannie Grange, No. 388 met in regular session at ten o'clock, December 19, with 26 members, three children and one visitor in attendance. Rev. and Mrs. Trueblood, Mrs. E. M. Sweet, Wm. Estenhausen and Earl Baker were initiated in the mysteries of the order, the officers were installed for the coming year. The usual Grange feast was spread and the good things disappeared as usual. Brother Cate of Blue Mt. Grange met with us and talked on dairying. After dinner the following program was rendered:

Song—By Grange.
Roll Call—"What is the housewife's greatest grievance?" by the sisters.
"What are her blessings?" by the brothers.
Recitation—"Dat Nig'ah", Mary Carter.
Vocal Duet—"Oceana Roll", John Miller and Mrs. Georganna Chadwick.
Recitation—"My Christmas Wish", Howard Gasset.
Vocal Solo—"If my dreams would turn to gold," Mrs. Georganna Chadwick.

"Grange Herald"—By "Shirkers".
Discussion—"Is the true spirit of Christmas a mere exchange of presents with our friends," by Mrs. T. F. Organ.

The literary contest for the past year was won by 729 points by the "Shirkers" with Chas Organ as captain, to furnish a banquet for the winning side. As the captain of the winning side was to be assistant lecturer, Chas. Organ will fill that office for the coming year. Mt. Fannie Grange will meet again January 2nd for a New Year's dinner.

Thursday evening the Royal Anne Needle club of Cherry Lane were hostess at a banquet given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Lantz, in honor of the King Bings and their families. All of the members were present except Mrs. Lou Payne who is in Walla Walla for the winter.

Supper was served at 8 p. m. consisting of sandwiches, Boston baked beans, scalloped potatoes, pickles, coffee, ice cream and cake. Afterward a musical program was given consisting of several selections by the Love and Conklin mandolin club of five pieces, vocal solos by Harvey Lantz, duets by Mr. and Mrs. Love, violin and piano duets by L. R. Conklin and Besse Lantz. All departed at 11:30, the King Bings all agreeing that the Royal Annes were very delightful entertainers.

Married at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sills of this city, Dec. 14, 1914. Miss Cornelia Belle Sills, a popular teacher of Cove and Mr. Grant Yoder, a successful young rancher of Hanna, Alberta, Canada. Rev. Trueblood of the M. E. Church officiating. The young couple departed immediately for Hubbard, Ore., for a brief visit with the groom's relatives, after which they will proceed to their future home in Alberta.

The Cove dancing club gave a dance at the Macabee hall, Saturday night Dec. 19th. The dance was well attended.

Rance Stacey and family have moved to Wallawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rhinehart of Nez Perce, Idaho, has purchased the Fagar property in Cove.

A party of young people from Cove visited the home of the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Chadwick, with their cow-bells and tin pans Monday night. All spent an enjoyable evening.

T. E. Johnson has returned from Fat Stock Show at Portland, bringing with him four of the prize winning hogs for his farm.
L. A. Gasset, Henry Lynch and Ralph Lorenz have returned from their trip to interior Oregon. L. A. Gasset filed on a homestead in Crook county and Mr. Lynch has several places picked out and will go back there in the spring.
