IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it. Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

UNIVERSITY GAME SHOWN

O. A. C-OREGON FOOTBALL GAME FILMED.

Fourteen Hundred Feet Will be Thrown on Screen at Sherry's.

Thrilling scenes from the O. A. C-University of Oregon football game at Corvallis last fall, will be thrown on the screen at Sherry's theatre this evening in connection with the appearance of the University of Oregon Glee club. The program does not usually call for this feature, but the club made special arrangements to give it to La Grande. There are hundreds in La Grande who were intimately interested in that game and will look with keen interest this evening upon the 1400 feet of moving picture taken November 21 at Corvallis. The principal features of the game will be shown.

"We made special effort to get La Grande these football pictures this evening," said Manager Michael today in announcing the feature. "It will give La Grande people a treat in that line that no other Eastern Oregon city gets. The film is good and the scenes in the three-three tie game are thrown upon the screen. With our usual numbers, and this feature added, we feel that we can welcome the citizens of La Grande this evening and give them added value for money spent at the door."

All grocery stores will be closed tomorrow and there will be no delivery.

STORY OF A FRONT TOOTH

A Small Fortune That Was Restored to Its Rightful Owners.

One winter morning a little boy of eight or ten years ran into the office of the United Charities in New York city, crying bitterly. Between his sobs he cried out, "Uncle has stolen mother's front tooth; please get it back for us." His mother, then lying dead at home was an actress. In her youth she had had a large diamond inserted in the front tooth, and the advertisement had proved profitable.

As the years passed misfortune overtook her; she was deserted by her husband; the family harder was often empty and the children hungry. Resolutely she refused to part with the diamond, always telling the children that after her death the money it brought would support them for some time.

When the little mother became ill with tuberculosis the children hushed her fears about their future with reassurances of the value of the jewel. But before the funeral a wicked uncle came in the night and pulled out the tooth. An officer was sent at once to the uncle with threats of arrest if restitution was not made at once. The mission was successful, the tooth restored, the diamond taken out, sold and the proceeds used for the children.—Condensed From Survey.

A FRIEND IN NEED.

Joe Jefferson's Story of the Man Who Helped His Parents.

The late Joe Jefferson told this story of his childhood days:

"When my parents were traveling in the west we had a hard time to get along, meeting with bad luck in town after town. Finally we came to a little town in Illinois and passed a night there. The next morning the people of this town had recently turned righted the scales and the justice was fair toward us. We were able to get a few dollars in advance, but our situation was desperate, and enough money to give our play in the town where we were and not enough to get to the next town.

"Finally, my father found a young lawyer who was willing to help us. He succeeded in getting us a permit to play free of cost. We made good money that night, which carried us to the next town in comfort.

"I recently played in this same town, which is now the good sized city of Springfield, and I visited the lawyer whose name I never forgot. On the same night which marks the beginning of the name 'Abraham Lincoln'—Ladies Home Journal."
