Women of Sedentary Habits: Women who get but little exercise are likely to be troubled with constipation and indigestion and will find Chamberlain's Tablets highly beneficial. Not so good as a three or four mile walk every day, but very much better than to allow the bowels to remain in a constipated condition. MISSIONARIES IN QUANDRY

MISSIONARY BOARD EXPLAINS ATTITUDE.

War Zone Calls, Relatives Hold Back, Says Secretary.

Dr. H. L. Underwood of this city has received a copy of the American Missionary Board quarterly, captioned "war news, extra edition." In it are set out many interesting things about Turkey, but principally, deals with the missionary situation at the present time. The editor of the bulletin remarks:

There has been so much talk in the newspapers over the declaration of "A Holy War" by the Sultan of Turkey, and so many friends appear to think that the Moslem world is about to indulge in a general massacre of Christians, that we have asked the senior secretary of the Board Rev. James L. Barton, D. D., to make a statement on the subject. Dr. Barton says:

All wars of the Turks from their point of view, are "holy wars," the public declaration that Turkey is now engaged in a holy war with the Allies is tantamount simply to the declaration on the part of the Allies that they are a war with Turkey. It is a simple declaration of war: nothing more, nothing less. From the Mohammedan standpoint, however, there is a great incongruity, recognized by the Mohammedans themselves and often spoken of, in carrying on a holy war under the leadership of non-Moslem or Christian officers, as the Turkish army is now largely officered by Germans. There is no possibility, in the judgment of those who best understand the situation, that, under these circumstances, what is commonly understood as a "holy war" can be fought. Turkey today under German domination has no leadership in the Mohammedan world. No call for a holy war issued from Constantinople can have any influence over Mohammedans in general—even in Turkey—much less in Arabia, Egypt, Persia, India, and elsewhere. There is no need of any anxious thought on the subject of the calling of a Holy War on the part of Turkey at this time.

Why Missionaries Remain.
 The secretaries of the Board are between two fires in these days. On the one hand the missionaries in Turkey are stirred up because the Board is holding back fifteen newly appointed missionaries on account of the war. On the other hand the relatives and friends of the missionaries now in Turkey rebuke us for not calling all of them home. The missionaries write: "Under what possible argument are you keeping these workers from sailing when the opportunity here is so great?" The friends and relatives write: "How dare you assume the responsibility of keeping the missionaries in Turkey in times like these?" Each position is natural but is based upon lack of information. The new workers for Turkey are kept in this country not because we would fear for their safety were they at their stations, but because travel, especially in the interior of the country is impossible or unduly hazardous.
