Next Tuesday afternoon is Scholarship Loan Fund day at the Neighborhood club, one of the most important days in the club calendar.

Come and help swell our contribution to this worthy cause.

The members of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church and their friends made merry last night at an indoor track meet in the basement of the church, with over 100 young folks in attendance.

The members of the Baptist church observed "watch night" Thursday night. The evening's program was opened with a big dinner for the members of the church followed by the regular quarterly business meeting.

At 9:00 o'clock the young folks took charge of the festivities with a program of music and literary numbers.

Thirty O. A. C. students from Eastern Oregon will return to Corvallis tonight on a party ticket. Among the La Grande students who have spent the holidays at home are the Misses Ethel Wright, Inez Knowles, Cecile Lilly and Naomi Kirtley.

Miss Lucile Ramsdell and Miss Lou Jones entertained 20 couples last evening at a dancing party at the W. H. Bohnenkamp home.

On Monday evening Helen McDonald entertained for a few friends. Leona Newlin won high honors at cards and Wilma Oesterling received the consolation prize.

The Epworth Leaguers of the South Methodist church entertained at a community party Thursday night, over 100 members of the church and their friends being present to enjoy the program that had been prepared by the Leaguers and to watch the old year out and welcome in the new year.

Miss Elise Holmes of Enterprise, is a guest of Miss Ethel Wright today. These young ladies are sorority sisters in college and will return this evening to resume their studies in home economics.

Miss Grace McMillan entertained at a sewing party about a score of her teacher friends at her apartments in the J. K. Wright home Wednesday evening.

Miss Inez Knowles, daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. W. Knowles, returns to her school work in Corvallis this evening.

Mrs. Grace Molter will entertain the afternoon division of the Kaffee Klatch next week.

All accounts owing to the Geo. A. Anderson company are now in the hands of M. V. Mifford for collection, and parties owing the company can pay their accounts at the old location of the company in the Gardiner building.—Adv. 1 2 tf.

Installation Monday Night. New officers of Knights of Pythias will be installed Monday night. 2t.
